First Regular Session

House Bill No. 27

Introduced by Representative GERALDINE B. ROMAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to amend Section 77 of Batas Pambansa (BP) Bilang 881, as amended, otherwise known as the "Omnibus Election Code of the Philippines," by excluding the withdrawal of a certificate of candidacy as a ground for the substitution of a candidate.

BP 881, as amended, was enacted in 1985. Many of its provisions are still effective to ensure the sanctity of the ballot and to provide an efficient electoral system. A closer study of the law, however, will indicate that some of its provisions are no longer relevant with the times. In particular, Section 77 of BP 881, as amended, is being used by would be candidates to circumvent the deadline imposed by the Commission on Elections for the filing of certificate of candidacies. Oftentimes, incumbent appointive public officials resort to this particular provision to maximize their stay in their positions and enjoy the perks, benefits, and privileges of their office.

Section 23 of BP 881 mandates the cessation of public appointive position or the automatic resignation of a public officer upon the filing of a certificate of candidacy. Thus, public officials take advantage of the provision of the law which allows substitution of candidates who withdraw their certificate of candidacy particularly in the case of accredited political parties, and mostly in local electoral contests. A potential candidate usually asks another person to file a certificate of candidacy which is later on withdrawn to allow the substitution in favor of the potential candidate.

While the law allows the substitution of a candidate, some quarters have abused this particular law and made a mockery of the electoral process. Hence, this measure proposes to exclude the withdrawal of a certificate of candidacy as a ground for the substitution of a candidate by amending Section 77 of BP 881, as amended. This amendment will also help the electorate determine who among the candidates are really sincere in their intent to serve the people.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
