

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

Seventeenth Congress
First Regular Session
House Bill No: 647

Introduced by REP. MERCEDES C. CAGAS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to provide additional benefits and privileges to all senior citizens.

Section 4, Article XV of the 1987 Constitution provides that

"Section 4. The family has the duty to care for its elderly members but the State may also do so through just programs of social security."

Senior citizens have contributed to our society during the prime of their lives. They have sacrificed much so that we may now enjoy the fruits of their labor. In any culture, respect for elders is paramount. This value should be reflected in our laws. While we may have granted privileges in the past, it is still woefully inadequate considering the diminishing number of senior citizens and their thinning time left to enjoy such rewards. Hence, this bill seeks to further reward them in their twilight years.

While the amendments may cover a comprehensive set of privileges, it is but a small memento of our appreciation for their sacrifice. Discounts on court fees, vehicle registration fees, real property tax, and PRC renewal fees are just small tokens for their usual expenditures. Provision of free annual physical examination, parking, exemption from color-coding and no-wait rule in establishments are also meant to ensure their enjoyment and physical relaxation. All told, these benefits are very economical ways of rewarding our senior citizens and shows to the world what kind of people the Filipinos are, especially towards their elders.

In view of the foregoing, passage of this bill is highly recommended.
