REGISTRATION UNIT
BILLS AND INDEX SERVICE

Introduced by Hon. LEOPOLDO N. BATAOIL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Bill recognizes Local Civil Registry personnel all over the country as key players in securing the proofs of identity and status of every citizen in our country. The government should provide for a program of human resources development for the civil registry personnel nationwide to achieve and maintain the necessary reservoir of talent and manpower that will sustain the need of an increasing population. The Bill, therefore, seeks: (a) to provide for a more responsive and accountable local government structure whereby local government units shall be given more powers, authority, responsibilities, and resources; (b) to promote and improve the social and economic well-being of the Local Civil Registry personnel, their living and working conditions and terms of employment; (c) to define the functions and responsibilities of the Local Civil Registry Offices; (d) to develop their skills and capabilities in order that they will be more responsive and better equipped to deliver various programs and projects attached thereto to their mandate; and (e) to encourage those with proper qualification and excellent abilities to join and remain in government service.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly sought.

LEOPOLDO N. BATAOIL
