EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 24 of Article II under the 1987 Philippine Constitution provides that the State recognizes the vital role of communication and information in nation-building. Section 28 of the same articulates that subject to reasonable conditions prescribed by law, the State adopts and implements a policy of full public disclosure of all its transactions involving public interest.

Moreover, Section 7 of Article III under the same mandates that the right of the people to information on matters of public concern shall be recognized and that access to official records and to documents and papers pertaining to official acts, transactions, or decisions, as well as to government research data used as basis for policy development, shall be afforded the citizen, subject to such limitations as may be provided by law. However, while the public’s right to information is firmly enshrined in the Constitution and affirmed by the Supreme Court, access to public records largely remain limited.

This bill hopes to add on and enhance our democratic ideals and further empower our people. This measure seeks to respond to the problems involving basis for sanctions in cases of violation of the right to information. The existing remedy to compel disclosure, primarily judicial, is inaccessible to the general public; government’s record-keeping system is in a very poor state, the level of bureaucratic commitment to openness is low; and the cost of access to certain information is excessive.

Furthermore, the bill provides for the following:

- An expansive scope in terms of government agencies as well as information covered;
- A clear, uniform and speedy procedure for access to information;
- A proscription against excessive costs of access to information;
- A system of accessible and speedy remedies that a citizen who has been denied access to information may resort to;
- A mandate to promote a culture of openness within government; and
• Lear administrative, criminal and civil liability for violation of the right to information

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

AN ACT
IMPLEMENTING THE PEOPLE’S RIGHT TO INFORMATION AND THE CONSTITUTIONAL POLICIES OF FULL PUBLIC DISCLOSURE AND HONESTY IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Short Title. —This Act shall be known as the “People’s Freedom of Information Act.”

SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. — the State recognizes the right of the people to information on matters of public concern and adopts and implements a policy of full public disclosure of all its transaction involving public interest, subject to the procedures and limitations provided by this Act. It is likewise a declared policy of the State to promote the meaningful and increased participation of the people in government decision-making and public accountability.

Public officials and employees, in the performance of their duties under this Act, as well as citizens in the exercise of their rights under this Act, shall handle information kept or obtained under this Act fairly, lawfully and with due regard to the full protection of the right to privacy of individuals.

SEC. 3. Definition of Terms. — As used in this Act:

(a) “Information” shall mean any public and/or official record, document, paper, report, letters, contract, minutes and transcripts of official meetings, maps, books, photographs, data, research material, film, audio and video recordings, magnetic or other tapes, electronic data, computer stored data, or other like or similar data or material of public concern recorded, stored or archived in whatever form or format, which are made, received or kept in or under the control and custody of any government agency pursuant to law, executive order, rules and regulations, ordinance or in connection with the performance or transaction of official business by any government agency.
(b) "Official record/records" shall refer to information, in final form, produced or received by a public officer, employee, or a government in an official capacity or pursuant to a public function or duty.

(c) "Public record/records" shall include information required by law, executive order, rules and regulations to be entered, kept and made publicly available by a government agency.

(d) "Public service contractor" shall be defined as a private entity that has a dealing, contract or transaction of whatever form or kind with the government or a government agency/office that utilizes public funds.

(e) "Personal information" shall refer to any information, whether recorded in a material form or not, from which the identity of an individual is apparent or can be reasonably and directly ascertained by the entity holding the information, or when put together with other information, would directly and certainly identify an individual.

(f) "Sensitive personal information" shall refer to personal information:

1. About an individual's race, ethnic origin, marital status, age, color, and religious, philosophical or political affiliations;

3. Issued by government agencies peculiar to an individual which includes, but not limited to, social security numbers, previous or current health records, licenses or its denials, suspension or revocation, and tax returns; and

4. Specifically established by an executive order or an act of Congress to be kept classified.

SEC. 4. Coverage. – This Act shall cover all government agencies. Government agency or agencies shall include the executive, legislative and judicial branches as well as constitutional bodies of the Republic of the Philippines including, but not limited to, the national government and all its agencies, departments, bureaus, offices and instrumentalities, constitutional commissions and constitutionally mandated bodies, local governments and all their agencies, regulatory agencies, chartered institutions, government-owned or -controlled corporations, including wholly-owned or controlled subsidiaries, government financial institutions, and state universities and colleges.

SEC. 5. Access to Information. – Every Filipino citizen has the right to and shall, on request, be given access to any information of public concern under the control of a government agency regardless of the physical form or format in which they are contained, subject only to the exceptions enumerated in Section 7 of this Act.

SEC. 6. Presumption. –There shall be a legal presumption in favor of access to information. No request for information shall be denied unless it clearly falls under the exceptions provided under this Act. Accordingly, government agencies shall have the burden of proof of showing by clear and convincing evidence that the information requested is exempted from the disclosure by this Act.

SEC. 7. Exceptions. –Access to information shall be granted unless:

(a) The information is specifically authorized to be kept confidential under guidelines established by an Executive Order, and in fact properly classified pursuant thereto: Provided, That:

1) The information directly relates to national security or defense and its revelation may cause damage to national security or international and external defense of the State; or

2) The information requested pertains to the foreign affairs of the Republic of the Philippines, when its revelation shall unduly weaken the negotiating position of the government in an ongoing bilateral or multilateral negotiation or seriously jeopardize the diplomatic relations of the Philippines with any state, or prejudice the entrusting of information to the Republic of the Philippines on a basis of confidence by the government of any other country or any international organization: Provided, further, That the head of the department or agency having custody or possession of such information, shall keep under continuing review all classified information in his custody and may direct the declassification review of such review as needed. Declassification of the information shall be subject to the approval of the President.

(b) The information consists of minutes or records of advice given, or of opinions expressed during decision-making or policy formulation, including exchanges when the chief executive to be part of presidential communications privilege. Whenever disclosure would significantly undermine the free and frank provision of advice or exchange of views: Provided, That an executive order shall be issued specifying the reasonable period after which information invoked to be privileged under this paragraph shall be made accessible to the public.

(c) The information requested pertains to internal and/or external defense, law enforcement, and border control, when the disclosure thereof may:

(1) Compromise or interfere with any legitimate military or law enforcement operation;

(2) Compromise or interfere with the legitimate prevention, detection or suppression of criminal activity, or the legitimate implementation of immigration controls and border security;
(3) Lead to the disclosure of the identity of a confidential source, including a government, foreign agency or authority, or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a law enforcement authority in the course of an investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source;

(4) Disclose legitimate techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose legitimate guidelines for law enforcement investigations and prosecutions, if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law;

(5) Endanger the life or physical safety of any individual; or

(6) Deprive a person of a right to a fair trial and impartial adjudication.

(d) The information requested pertains to matters of human security, such as, but not limited to, food, health, money and trade: Provided, That such disclosure or premature disclosure will imperil our well-being or degrade the quality of life of our people by causing unnecessary panic and conflict and threatening to limit the range of policy choices available to the concerned implementing and regulating agencies: Provided, further, That this exception shall apply only until such time that the confidentiality requirement of the action plan of said agency is no longer necessary in addressing the said security issue.

(e) The information requested consist of drafts of orders, resolution, decisions, memoranda or audit reports by any executive, administrative, regulatory, constitutional, judicial or quasi-judicial body in the exercise of their regulatory, audit and adjudicatory function, the revelation of which would impair the impartiality of verdicts or otherwise obstruct the administration of justice.

(f) The information requested is obtained by either House of Congress, or any committee thereof, in executive session.

(g) The information requested pertains to the personal and sensitive information of a natural person other than the requesting party, and its disclosure would constitute an unwarranted invasion of his or her personal privacy, or the person is or was an official or employee of a government agency and the information relates to his other public function or the person has consented, in writing, to the disclosure of the information.

(h) The information requested pertains to trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a natural or juridical person other than the requesting party, obtained in confidence or covered by privileged communication, and/or filed with a government agency, whenever the revelation thereof would prejudice the interests of such natural or juridical person in trade, industrial, financial, or commercial competition.
(i) The information is classified as privileged communications in legal proceedings by law or by the Rules of Court, unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived it.

(j) The information requested is exempted from disclosure by the Constitution or by law, including information protected under the Anti-money Laundering Law, as amended, and the bank secrecy laws.

(k) The information is of nature that is premature disclosure would:

(1) In the case of an agency that regulates or deals with currencies, interest rates, securities, commodities, or financial institutions, be likely to lead speculations in currencies, interest rates, securities, or commodities market; or

(2) In the case of other agencies, be likely to frustrate the effective implementation of a proposed official action: Provided, That the information shall be disclosed once the abovementioned dangers have ceased.

(l) The information has already been made accessible as provided in Sections 8(a), 9, 11 and 14 of this Act.

For paragraphs (c) to (m) of this section, the determination whether any of these grounds shall apply shall be the responsibility of the head of office of the government agency in custody or control of the information, or any central or field officer/s duly designated by him: Provided, That:

(1) The exceptions are strictly construed;

(2) The exceptions are not used to cover-up a crime or any unlawful activity;

(3) The President, the Supreme Court, the Senate, the House of Representatives, and the Constitutional Commissions, with a majority vote of the body in accordance with their own rules of procedure, when applicable, may waive an exception with respect to information in the custody of offices under their respective supervision or control when they deem that there is an overriding public interest in disclosure;

(4) The exceptions do not constitute authority to withhold information from or limit the availability of records to Congress or any of its committees;

(5) The exceptions do not constitute an authority of the executive branch of a local government unit to withhold information from its legislative body;

(6) Whenever the information requested is part of a record, whose other parts are covered by an exception, but may be reasonably severed from a record, the responding official shall communicate the information not covered by the exception to the requester; and
(7) The exceptions set forth in this section may be overcome if the requester is able to prove before a court of competent jurisdiction that the public interest in the disclosure of information outweighs the public interest in keeping the information secret or confidential;

(m) The information requested pertains to information about the ongoing evaluation or review of bids or proposals undertaken by the bidding or review committee prior to an official recommendation by the government.

SEC. 8. Access to information shall be granted unless. –

(14) Any disclaimer that shall announce true and correct information relative to a matter of public concern that has been the subject of untruthful or inaccurate publication in media.

All government agencies shall over time endeavor and build the capacity and practice to upload in full all other contracts, agreements, or treaties covered under this section, in particular those that are of the highest public interest by reason of the amounts involved and the impact of the transaction to the public.

SEC. 10 Protection of Privacy. – While providing for access to information in public records, this Act also affords full protection of the right to privacy of individuals, as follows:

(a) A government agency must ensure that personal and sensitive information in its custody or under its control is disclosed only as permitted under this Act;

(b) A government agency must protect personal and sensitive information in its custody or under its control by making reasonable security arrangements against such risks as unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure, or disposal;

(c) An employee, officer or director of a government agency who has access, whether authorized or unauthorized, to personal and sensitive information in the custody of the agency, must not disclose that information except as authorized under this Act.

(a) For the effective implementation of this Act, all government agencies shall prepare a Freedom of Information Manual within six (6) months from the effectivity of this act indicating the following:

1) The location and contact information of the head, regional, provincial and field offices, and other established places where the public can obtain government information or submit requests;

2) The types of information it generates, produces, holds and/or publishes;

3) A description of its record-keeping system;

4) The person or office responsible for receiving requests for information;

5) The procedure for the filing of requests personally, by mail, or through the identified electronic means;
6) The standard forms for the submission of request and for the proper acknowledgment of the request;

7) The process for the disposition of the request, including the routing of the request to the person or office with the duty to act on the request, the decision making process, and the grant or denial of access and its implementation;

8) The procedure for the administrative appeal of any denial for access to information;

9) The schedule of fees;

10) The process and procedure for the mandatory disclosure of information under Section 8 of this Act: Provided, That, should the agency lack the capacity to fully comply therewith, a brief description of its plan to facilitate compliance within three (3) years from the approval of this Act; and

11) Such other information, taking into consideration the unique characteristics of an agency, that will help facilitate the effective implementation of this Act.

(a) The foregoing information shall also be posted in its website and bulletin boards, and shall be regularly updated;

(b) In no case shall the absence of the aforementioned FOI Manual be a reason for the denial of any request for information made in accordance with this Act; and

(c) The heads of each of the departments and agencies may designate liaison units or Committees who shall coordinate with the other units of the agency in implementing this Act. The composition, functions and duties of these liaison units or Committees shall be included in the FOI Manual.

SEC. 12. Procedure of Access.—

(a) Any person who wishes to obtain information shall submit, free of charge, a request to the government agency concerned personally, by mail, or through electronic means. A person who is unable, because of illiteracy or due to being a person with disability, to make a written request for information may make an oral request, and the public official who receives the oral request shall reduce it to writing, include his name and position within the government agency, and give a copy thereof to the person who made the request. The request shall state the name and preferred contact information of the requesting party and reasonably describe the information required, the reason for the request of the information and the preferred means by which the government agency shall communicate such information to the requesting party.
party: Provided, That the stated reason shall not be used as a ground to deny the request or to refuse the acceptance of the request unless such reason is contrary to law. If the request is submitted personally, the requesting party shall show his current identification card issued by any government agency, or government or private employer or school, or a community tax certificate. If the request is submitted by mail or through electronic means, the requesting party may submit a photo static or electronically scanned copy of verifiable identification, or other convenient means as determined by the agency.

(b) The public official receiving the request shall provide reasonable assistance, free of charge, to enable all requesters and particularly those with special needs, to comply with the request requirements under this section.

c) The request shall be stamped by the government agency, indicating the date and time of receipt and the name, rank, title and position of the receiving public officer or employee with the corresponding signature, and a copy thereof furnished to the requesting party. In case the request is submitted by electronic means, the government agency shall provide for an equivalent means by which the requirements of this paragraph shall be met. Each government agency shall establish a system to trace the status of all requests for information received by it.

(d) The request may indicate the requesting party’s preferred mode and means of receiving the information requested, provided that the mode and means are reasonable, taking into consideration equipment normally available to the concerned government agency.

(e) A government agency may communicate the information requested in a form other than the preferred means whenever the agency has no capability in communicating the information in the preferred format, or such preferred means would unreasonably interfere with the effective operation of the agency or be detrimental to the preservation of the record.

(f) The government agency shall comply with such request as soon as practicable, and in any case within fifteen (15) working days from the receipt thereof. The period may be extended whenever the information requested requires a search of the government agency’s filed or satellite offices, examination of voluminous records, the occurrence of fortuitous events or other analogous cases.

(g) The government agency shall, in writing or through electronic means, notify the person making the request of the extension, setting forth the reasons for such extension and the date when the information shall be made available, which in no case shall result in an extension of more than twenty (20) working days.
(h) Once a decision is made to grant the request, the person making the request shall be notified of such and shall pay the required access and processing fees.

If the information is not held by the government agency to which the request was made, it shall notify the requester that it does not hold the information, and indicate to the requester which agency holds the record, if known. Whenever practicable, the agency receiving the request may also cause the transfer of the request to the appropriate agency that holds the information: Provided, That the period to comply with the request under this section shall begin to run only upon the receipt of the agency to which the request is transferred.

SEC. 13. Access and Processing Fees. —Government agencies may charge a reasonable fee which shall in no case exceed the actual cost of reproduction, copying or transcription and the communication of the information requested. Any agency may waive the fees whenever it is satisfied that the requester is an indigent. Or that the cost of reproduction s negligible or that it is pursuant to a program for disclosure.

SEC. 14. Exemption from Compliance. —The government agency is excused from complying with a subsequent identical or substantially similar request from the same requesting party where it has previously complied with a request for information, unless a reasonable interval has lapsed between compliance with the previous request and the making of the current request: Provided, That the government agency complies with the Section 15 of this Act.

SEC. 15. Notice of Denial.—If the government agency decides to deny the request, in whole or in part, it shall, as soon as practicable, and in any case within fifteen (15) calendar days from the receipt of the request, notify the person making the request such denial in writing or through electronic means. The notice shall clearly set forth the grounds for denial of the request for access to information.

SEC. 16. Remedies in Case of Denial of Request for Information—

(a) In all government agencies other than the judicial branch:

(1) Every denial of any request for access to information may be appealed to the person of office next higher in authority of the same agency, following the procedure mentioned in Section 11 (a)(8) of this Act: Provided, That the written appeal must be filed by the same person making the request within fifteen (15) calendar days from, the notice of denial. The appeal shall be decided by the person or office next higher in authority if the same agency within five (5) working days from filing of said written appeal. Failure of the government agency to decide within the aforesaid period shall constitute denial of the appeal.
(2) Upon denial of appeal with the government agency, the requesting party may file a verified petition for mandamus in the proper court, alleging the facts with certainty and praying that judgment may be rendered ordering the respondent, immediately or at some other time to be specified by the court, to disclose the requested information. Unless restrained or enjoined, the decision of the court shall be immediately executory, without prejudice to review in accordance with the Rules of Court. Any action for administrative and/or criminal liability arising from the same act or omission, if any, shall be filed with the Office of Ombudsman.

No damages shall be assessed against the respondent acted with malice, bad faith or negligence. Subject to the provisions of existing laws and the issuances of the Supreme Court, all courts shall give preference to the hearing and disposition of petitions for mandamus filed pursuant to the provisions of this Act. The court hearing the case is empowered to receive the information subject of the claim of exception under Section 7 herein and examine them in camera to determine the sufficiency of the factual and legal basis of such claim, when such sufficiency cannot be reasonably determined through evidence and circumstances apart from the information.

(b) In the Judicial Branch, the judiciary shall be governed by such remedies promulgated by the Supreme Court.

(c) The remedies provided in this section are without prejudice to any other administrative, civil or criminal action covering the same act.

(d) The remedies available under this Act shall be cumulative and subject to the rule of exhaustion of administrative remedies.

(e) The provisions of Republic Act No. 9285, otherwise known as the Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 2004, shall not apply to cases filed pursuant to this section.

(f) In case the requested party has limited or no financial capacity, the Public Attorney’s Office shall be mandated to provide legal assistance to the requestor in availing the remedies provided under this Act.

SEC. 17. Keeping of Records.-

(a) Government agencies shall create and/or maintain in appropriate formats, accurate and reasonably complete documentation or records of their organization, policies, transactions, decisions, resolutions, enactments, actions, procedures, operations, activities, communications and documents received or filed with them and the data generated or collected. These shall include working files such as drafts or notes, whenever this has been circulated within the agency for official purpose such as for discussion, comment or approval or when these contain unique information that can substantially contribute to a proper understanding of the agency organization, policies, transactions, decisions, resolutions, enactments, actions, procedures, operations, activities. This likewise include information submitted by public service contractors to the government agency concerned such as receipts, identities of the suppliers, purchase orders, cash vouchers, related agreements with other private entities, and other documents related to the execution or the implementation of their transaction or contracts with the government agency involved;

(b) Government agencies shall identify specific and classes of official records in their custody or control that have continuing historical, administrative, informational, legal, evidentiary, or research value for preservation by such agencies or their legitimate successors, or for transfer to the National Archives of the Philippines shall likewise identify specific and classes of official records that it shall require agencies to preserve and transfer to it;

(c) In addition to the specific and classes of official records identified for preservation under letter (b) of this section, the following shall not be destroyed:

(1) Records pertaining to loans obtained or guaranteed by the government;

(2) Records of government contracts;

(3) The declaration under oath of the assets, liabilities and net worth of public officers and employees, as required by law; and

(4) Records of official investigations pertaining to allegations of graft and corruption of public officers.

(d) Government agencies shall prepare, following standards and period promulgated pursuant to Republic Act No. 9470 or the National Archives of the Philippines Act of 2007, a records management program that includes the following: A records maintenance system for the creation, selection, classification, indexing and filing of official records that facilitate the easy identification, retrieval and communication of information to the public; A records maintenance, archival and disposition schedule providing a listing of records under current use, for retention by the agency, for transfer to the National Archives, or for destruction: Provided, That destruction of the official records may be implemented only upon approval of the National Archives of the Philippines; and A specification of the roles and responsibilities of agency personnel in the implementation of such system and schedule; and

(e) In addition to its functions as repository of all rules and regulations issued by agencies as provided under Book VII, Chapter II of the Administrative Code of 1987, the University of the Philippines Law Center shall, in coordination with the Office of the President which has exclusive editorial and printing jurisdiction over the Official Gazette, and with other relevant agencies, maintain a database, and publish the same in print in the Official Gazette or in digital or online form, the following:

(1) All laws of the Philippines and their amendments, from the period of the Philippine Commission to the present;

(2) All presidential issuances from November 15, 1935 to the present including, but not limited, to executive orders, presidential proclamations, administrative orders, memorandum circulars, general orders, and other similar issuances;

(3) A database of all appointments and designations made by the President of the Philippines; and

(4) Opinions of the Secretary of Justice.

SEC. 18. Publication in the Official Gazette.—For purposes of mandatory disclosure as provided in Section 8 of this Act, online publication in the Official Gazette website shall be considered official publication provided there shall be a timestamp in the said document.

For purposes of compliance with Article 2 of the Civil Code of the Philippines, publisher of the following in the online version of the Official Gazette, with the corresponding timestamps on the document, shall be considered as official publication:

(a) All legislative acts and resolutions of a public nature of the Congress of the Philippines;

(b) All executive and administrative orders and proclamations of general application;

(c) Decisions or abstract of decisions of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals or other courts of similar rank, as may be deemed by said courts of sufficient importance to be so published;

(d) Such documents or classes of documents as the President shall determine from time to time to have general application or which he may authorize to be published. However, other documents or classes of documents as may be required to be published by law, such as petitions and/or legal notices in connection with land titles, naturalization or special proceedings shall continue to be published in the print version of the Official Gazette or in any newspaper of general circulation for purposes of compliance with the publication requirement.

SEC. 19. Capacity-Building, Promotion of Best Practices and Continuous Updating of Appropriate Information Technology and FOI. —All government agencies must ensure that they have a complaint website within two (2) years from the date of effectivity of this Act. The National Computer Center shall monitor all government agency websites and render the appropriate support including capacity-building program and coordination with another appropriate agency, utilizing alternative mechanism and seeking the assistance of private relevant and willing volunteer groups to ensure full compliance with the requirements of this Act.

In the performance of its monitoring function of government websites and portals, the National Computer Center shall endeavor to continuously develop, improve and update its information technology system taking into consideration usability and practical accessibility of government documents by the public.

The Department of Science and Technology shall be responsible for setting the standards for the file formats to be used by the political subdivisions of the State. All national and local government agencies including GOCCs with or without original charter in the publication of government public information in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Every government agency shall ensure the provision of adequate training for its officials to improve awareness of the people's right to information and provisions of this Act, and to keep updated as to best practices in relation to information disclosure, records maintenance and archiving.

SEC. 20. Use of Plain Language.-Every government agency shall endeavor to use plain language in their communications orders, compliance, requirements or instructions issued to implement provisions of this Act. The government agencies shall translate key information into major Filipino languages and present them in popular form and means.

1. To carry out the provision of this Act, the Civil Service Commission (CSC) is designated to issue guidelines on the use of plain language to suit the needs of the requesting party;

2. The CSC shall provide the necessary training to employees of each government agency in using plain language in public documents;
