Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF THE REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL No. 84

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVE ALFREDO A. GARBIN, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The declared policy of the State to promote and upgrade the practice of professions in the country as embodied in Republic Act No. 10912 of 2016 ("CPD Law") is laudable as it is necessary to ensure that Filipino professionals are not only equipped and trained to meet the requirements of their profession but are also attuned to the developments and advancements in their chosen field.

However, the implementation of the said law has faced multiple criticisms due to the difficulty and the cost of implementation of its provisions. Likewise, the law faced criticisms on the impracticability of its application to certain professionals.

Thus, it is hereto proposed that the cost of compliance with the CPD Law be a joint responsibility of the employer and the employee, whether in the government or private sector. In the same manner, professionals who are practicing their professions abroad ("OFWs") shall be exempt from the coverage of the law.

The approval of this bill is earnestly sought.

ALFREDO A. GARBIN, Jr.
