HOUSE BILL No. 89

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVES ALFREDO A. GARBIN, Jr. and ELIZALDY S. CO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to change the term of office of the barangay officials from three (3) years to five (5) years, amending for the purpose the Local Government Code.

The election of barangay officials is a crucial aspect in local government; the barangay, being the smallest unit of government, is the one nearest to the people in terms of proximity and familiarity. This is how the people redress their grievances directly to the government.

However, barangay officials rarely finish the programs they intended to accomplish at the start of their term because the three-year term proves to be wanting of major reforms in their barangay. Also, it is shorter than the five-year term of the Sangguniang Kabataan, even if the responsibilities of the barangay officials are wider in scope and more important. It becomes of paramount importance, therefore, that the term be extended to five years, similar to that of the barangay officials and members of the Sangguniang Kabataan.

Moreover, the extension of the terms of the barangay officials will greatly reduce the expenses used for local elections. We cannot, in one year, hold national elections and local elections at the same time without exhausting our financial resources. Apart from this, we may also save effort and personal campaign expenses of the candidates themselves.

The bill was filed in the 15th Congress but for lack of time, its progress was halted at the committee level. In light of all these circumstances, the swift passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
