EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS

House Bill No. 91

Introduced by: REP. EDGAR MARY S. SARMIENTO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Omnibus Election Code\(^1\) defines a nuisance candidate as a person who files a Certificate of Candidacy “to put the election process in mockery or disrepute or to cause confusion among the voters by the similarity of the names of the registered candidates or by other circumstances or acts which clearly demonstrate that the candidate has no bona fide intention to run for the office.”

The election of a country’s leaders is one imbued with a sanctity that shall at all times be protected. The results of an election is the embodiment of democracy and, thus, must not be made the subject of mockery by these so-called nuisance candidates.

While the present provision in the Omnibus Election Code gives the Commission on Elections (COMELEC) the authority to refuse to give due course to or to cancel a certificate of candidacy clearly filed to be of nuisance to the electoral process, nothing stops any person from repeatedly filing or causing the filing of such nuisance.

Thus, there is a reasonable need to employ more measure to deter the practice of indiscriminately filing of nuisance certificates of candidacy just to mock the election or to attempt to shave votes off of certain candidates.

As a deterrent to such practice, a penalty heavier than mere refusal of due course or cancellation of a Certificate of Candidacy must be imposed upon those who maliciously file or cause the filing of the same. Hence, this bill.

\(^1\) Section 69, Omnibus Election Code.
Filed first during the 17th Congress, the main objectives of this measure are to reinforce the seriousness of the election process and to protect the election process (and, consequently, the public interest) from those who wish to mock it.
