Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 110

Introduced by REP. LAWRENCE LEMUEL H. FORTUN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article II, Section 26 of the Constitution states that "The State shall guarantee equal access to public service and prohibit political dynasty as defined by law."

In a study conducted by the Asian Institute of Management Policy Center in 2009, the estimated prevalence of dynasties in the country across key local government positions and found the same to be most widespread among certain positions especially governors (85%), vice-governors (75%), district representatives (74%) outside of the National Capital Region, and mayors (66%) and vice-mayors (50%) outside of NCR. In the same study, political dynasties are pervasive in the ten (10) poorest provinces that are afflicted by low levels of human development, bad governance, violence and poor business climates. Dynasties have also been observed to weaken the checks and balances in government as well as the competition in the political system resulting in less access for alternative leaders and youth leaders to be part of the political system.

This proposed measure provides for a clear and categorical definition of political dynasty and political dynasty relationships, and the prohibition thereof, thereby giving force and effect to the anti-dynasty provisions of the 1987 Constitution.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

REP. LAWRENCE LEMUEL H. FORTUN
1st District Agusan del Norte
AN ACT
DEFINING POLITICAL DYNASTY AND PROHIBITING THE ESTABLISHMENT THEREOF

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as "The Anti-Political Dynasty Act of 2019."

SECTION 2. Declaration of Policy. – It is hereby declared the policy of the State to guarantee equal access and opportunity to public office and service to the public. Towards this end, it is likewise declared the policy of the State to prohibit political dynasties as defined in Section 3 of this Act.

It shall also be deemed to exist where two (2) or more persons who are spouses or are related within the second civil degree of consanguinity or affinity run simultaneously for elective public office within the same province, even if neither is so related to an incumbent elective official. In case the constituency of the incumbent elective official is national in character, the above relatives shall be disqualified from within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity, whether legitimate or illegitimate, to an incumbent elective official seeking reelection shall be allowed to hold or run for any elective office in the same province in the same election.

In case the constituency of the incumbent elective official is national in character, the above relatives shall be disqualified from running within the same province where the former is a registered voter, as well as to any other national elective positions.

In case where none of the candidates is related to an incumbent elective official within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity, but are related to one another within the said prohibited degree, they, including their spouses, shall be disqualified from holding or running this Act.

the COMELEC, after due notice and hearing, and its decision shall be executory after the lapse of five (5) days from receipt thereof by the losing party.

SECTION 10. Effect of Petition if Unresolved Before Completion of Canvass. – If the petition, for reasons beyond the control of the COMELEC, cannot be decided before the completion of the canvass, the votes cast for the respondent shall be included in the counting and canvassing: Provided however, that if the basis for such disqualification is strong, his or her proclamation shall be suspended notwithstanding the fact that he or she received the winning number of votes in the election: Provided further, that in cases where disqualified candidate has been proclaimed he or she shall ipso facto forfeit his or her right to the office.

SECTION 11. Applicability. – This Act shall be applicable to the next election and to all subsequent elections to be held thereafter.

SECTION 11. Rules and Regulations. – The COMELEC shall promulgate the rules and
