Republic of the Philippines

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 210

Introduced by Honorable Roberto “Robby” V. Puno

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Establishing a minimum age of sexual consent is essential in the protection of children from sexual abuse. Children under such age are considered without the power to resist and to give their genuine and fully informed consent to any sexual activity. As such, the act of engaging in sexual activity with children below such age must be considered unlawful.

Article 34 of the Convention on the Rights of a Child obliges State parties to take all measures to protect children from all forms of sexual exploitation and sexual abuse including coercion to engage in any unlawful sexual activity. This includes passage of laws that prohibit engaging in sexual activity with children below the age of sexual consent.

The Philippines has laws that set a minimum age for sexual consent. Sexual intercourse with children below 12 years old is illegal and tantamount to rape. In addition, sexual activity with a person below 18 years of age may constitute child abuse and exploitation.

UNICEF\(^1\) found that the Philippines’ age of consent is not compliant with international average and that significant reform or development of new laws is required. Based on a survey, most countries has an age of consent fixed at 16 years of age.

Pursuant to the obligation of the Philippines under the Convention on the Rights of the Child and to comply with international average, this bill amends the provisions of the Revised Penal Code as well sections of Republic Act No. 7610 by increasing the age for determining statutory rape and other acts of sexual abuse and exploitation from 12 years old to 16 years old.

The immediate passage and effectivity of the proposed bill are requested.
