EXPLANATORY NOTE

Youth power is recognized in the world today as a mobilizing force of the social development. The youth are filled with tremendous energy and towering ambitions to be a catalyst of change in the society to transform the present times into a bright future. Recognizing the momentous role of the youth in the country, Dr. Jose Rizal once quoted that “The youth is the hope of our Motherland.” As such, they are considered as a ‘trustee’ of the nation-building process who will establish the national identity and secure the essence of democracy by ensuring that the rights and liberties of our people are being upheld all the time.

The history even unveiled the heroism of the Filipino youth who sacrificed their lives for democracy. First Quarter Storm is a major event initiated by youth and other advocates to combat tyrannical rule and authoritarianism. It is a continuous movement from January 25, 1970 to March 1970 against the dictatorship of former President Ferdinand Marcos.

It all started when President Marcos was delivering his State of Nation’s Address (SONA) on January 26, 1970. The youth demonstrators demanded for constitutional reform before the law enforcers responded with violent riot. On the following days, simultaneous demonstrators were held again for constitutional reform, and to express grievances against the police for the said incidence. Security forces reacted again with force until it caused the death of four (4) students and hundreds of wounded protesters. Series of demonstrations spread throughout the archipelago. As a response, President Marcos declared Martial Law that eventually transpired the death of democracy and the rise of totalitarian rule.

This event must not be buried in the past but rather considered as a success of the struggle of the Filipino people in ousting a dictator. The memories of the youth who fought to revive democracy and to defend the rights and liberties of the Filipino people must be respected as a foundation of realization of our dream to free ourselves from misery of fascist rule. Without their efforts, our society must have been paralyzed... up to the present due to the atmosphere of fear and agony persisted arising from excruciating oppression of the government and state violence against its people.

This bill seeks to declare a day, specifically, January 25, also the day that FQS started, as the day for commemoration of the anniversary for First Quarter Storm. During this proposed official anniversary of FQS, it will be a chance for every citizen to look back to the past and learn the lessons from the nightmare of the Marcos regime. It is the day we can repay and honor those youths who never feared to fight and sacrifice their lives in pursuit of their aspiration to establish the society whereby the freedom is respected and equality among the people is observed. Their fight is not an end but a beginning for our struggle toward democratic goal.

This representation earnestly seeks the passage of this bill at the most immediate possible time. Let this be a model for the international community, a step closer to a more informed, dynamic, and critical public crucial for democracy.
Approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
