EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to authorize the President of the Republic of the Philippines to rightsize the executive branch of the government in order to promote a more streamlined and efficient system of operations. It also grants the heads of the Legislature, the Judiciary, Constitutional Offices, Local Government Units, and State Universities and Colleges the same authority within their authorized appropriations.

The implementation of this rationalization program shall be overseen by the Committee on Rightsizing the National Government which shall be created under this same bill. The program is aimed at streamlining national government agency operations thereby promoting a more efficient system of delivery of services.

The adoption of this bill will ensure a more sustainable pattern of public expenditure through a leaner yet more responsive and effective bureaucracy. In view thereof, passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
AN ACT RIGHTSIZING THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT TO IMPROVE PUBLIC SERVICE DELIVERY

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Short Title. — This Act shall be known as "Rightsizing the National Government Act".

SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. — It is hereby declared the policy of the State to promote and maintain effectiveness, efficiency and economy in the government and enhance institutional capacity to improve public service delivery, and to ensure the attainment of the country's societal and economic development goals and objectives. Consistent with this, the government shall focus its functions and resources on the essential role, scope, and level of governance, and minimize, if not eliminate, redundancies, overlaps and duplication in its operations and simplify its rules and regulations, systems and processes.

SEC. 3. Coverage. — This Act shall cover all agencies of the executive branch, including departments, bureaus, offices, commissions, boards, councils, and all other entities attached to or under their administrative supervision, government-owned or -controlled corporations (GOCCs) not covered by Republic Act No. 10149 or the "GOCC Governance Act of 2011".

The Legislature, the Judiciary, the Constitutional Commissions, and the Office of the Ombudsman may, within their respective authorized appropriations, likewise rightsize their respective offices, consistent with the principles and guidelines contained in this Act.

Local government units (LGUs) may also rightsize their respective offices, consistent with the governing principles and guidelines contained in this Act and the provisions of Republic Act No. 7160 or the "Local Government Code of 1991", and subject to their financial capability.

The Governance Commission for GOCCs (GCG) shall continue to exercise its authority under Republic Act No. 10149 to reorganize, merge, streamline, abolish, or privatize any GOCC, in consultation with the department or agency to which the GOCC is attached.

SEC. 4. Principles and Guidelines. — The National Government shall implement a Rightsizing Program in accordance with the following principles and guidelines:

(a) The role of government and the scope, level, and prioritization of government activities shall be determined in accordance with the constitutional mandate, political and socioeconomic objectives of the government, and available resources;

(b) The government shall establish a conducive policy environment to courage active private sector engagement in the production and delivery of goods and services;

(c) The delineation of responsibilities between the National Government and the LGUs in the provision, production, and delivery of goods and services shall be clearly defined;

(d) A whole-of-government approach shall be adopted to ensure seamless operations of agencies within and across sectors and to be more responsive to public needs;

(e) Government operations shall be simplified so that the departments/agencies can focus on the performance of their core functions and implementation of programs and projects that will lead to the attainment of desired sectoral and national goals and outcomes;

(f) Government systems and processes shall be simplified and modernized to facilitate the delivery and upgrade the quality of frontline services, as well as to improve policy formation, planning and performance evaluation, and raise overall productivity of the public sector;

(g) Government rules, procedures, and requirements shall be rationalized to reduce the regulatory burden on citizens, businesses, and other stakeholders, as well as reduce the administrative burden on the part of the government; and

(h) The organizational structure of an agency shall be designed to facilitate the effective, efficient, and economical implementation of programs and projects, and the attainment of organizational outputs and outcomes; rightsized and the appropriate staffing mix shall be determined based on the skills and competencies required to effectively and efficiently carry out the agency’s mandate and functions.

SEC. 5. Authority of the President of the Philippines to Rightsize the Operations of the Executive Branch. — Pursuant to the governing rules, policies, standards and guidelines stipulated in this Act, the President of the Philippines is hereby granted the following authority in the rightsizing of the operations of the different agencies of the Executive Branch:

(a) To pursue the following functional shifts/modifications:

(1) Strengthen functions of the agency which directly contribute to the targeted ultimate societal outcomes of the National Government and/or the targeted sector/subsector outcomes of the agency;

(2) Scale down, phase out, eliminate or discontinue functions, programs, and projects that can better be carried out or undertaken by the private sector, or have already been devolved to LGUs consistent with the governing principles provided in this Act; and

(3) Transfer/integrate functions from one agency to another which can better perform the same.
(b) To undertake the following organizational actions:
(1) Regularize ad hoc offices whose functions are vital and significant, thus must be continually undertaken by the government;
(2) Merge or consolidate agencies whose functions are necessarily overlapping or duplicating and can be undertaken by a single entity; or clients are similar or related to rationalize the use of government resources;
(3) Split agencies with multifarious functions which are deemed distinct and equally serve important aspects of governance;
(4) Transfer offices to other agencies wherein their functions are more aligned;
and
(5) Abolish agencies: (i) which functions are already redundant or no longer relevant or necessary, or better undertaken by another entity; (ii) which are no longer achieving the objectives and purposes for which these were originally created, (iii) which are not cost-effective since these do not generate the desired levels of outputs and outcomes vis-à-vis the resource inputs; and/or (iv) which have already become nonoperational, dormant and/or outlived their purposes.
(c) To undertake other functional/organizational actions, as necessary, consistent with the policies, principles, framework, and standards of this Act;
(d) To develop and provide safety nets, including their implementation strategies, for employees of departments/agencies who may be affected by the government’s rightsizing efforts; and (e) To formulate an organizational development program to strengthen the institutional capacity of the agencies and improve productivity of employees.

SEC. 6. Creation of a Committee on Rightsizing the Executive Branch. — A Committee on Rightsizing the Executive Branch is hereby created to oversee the implementation of the Rightsizing Program, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

The Committee shall be composed of the Executive Secretary as Chairperson, and the Secretary of the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) as Co-chairperson, with the Secretary of Socio-Economic Planning, Chairperson of the Civil
