EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 837

Introduced by Representative Gabriel H. Bordado, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Good governance is always anchored on transparency and accountability. As the principal authors of this bill- Representative Henendina Abad and former Representative (and now Vice President) Maria Leonor G. Robredo- articulated in their explanatory note when they first filed it in the 16th Congress, "it will empower our citizenry and it is in their empowerment that governance towards a progressive society can be achieved."

They averred that the Filipinos should trust their government by being transparent in its dealings, particularly in fiscal transactions and policy formulation. It must also be ready, at all times, to provide them with accurate, timely, and relevant information to enable them to make intelligent decisions on issues confronting the nation.

For decades, the Filipino people have been waiting for the passage of the Freedom of Information Bill. They will certainly appreciate the immediate passage of this bill in the 18th Congress.
