EXPLANATORY NOTE

Just recently, the Philippine economy received a much-needed boost with the improved credit rating it received from Standard & Poor’s, signalling an improvement in the country’s standing.

While this is a welcome development as far as the country’s overall economic growth is concerned, we are still very much aware of the prevailing poverty among a majority of our fellow Filipinos, who have yet to feel the effects of this improvement in their everyday lives.

This bill seeks to help our countrymen benefit from this economic improvement by making sure this trickles down to our daily wage earners. This profit sharing program would be derived from the net profit made by all companies, rather than increasing the minimum daily wage, which may not be feasible at this time. This measure might have more far-reaching effects on labourers and workers, and would encourage them to work harder for the successful operation of their companies.

Moreover, in this bill, we propose that the net profit contribution be made tax deductible the following year. In this manner, all sectors would be benefited by this bill.
