AN ACT
INSTITUTING THE MAGNA CARTA OF FILIPINO SEAFARERS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Out of the 1.6 million seafarers, up to 30 percent of which is Filipino. According to the 2016 data from the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration (POEA), some 442,820 Filipino seafarers are deployed. The contribution of the Filipino seafarers in our economy is reflected by the foreign remittances brought in to our country in 2018 amounting to US$6.14 billion or 19 percent of the total remittances for the said year.

The existing labor laws and social legislation, particularly the Overseas Filipinos and Migrant Workers’ Act of 1996 (RA 8042), do not adequately address the needs of seafarers nor do they adhere to internationally recognized instruments, such as those of the International Labor Organization (ILO) and the International Maritime Organization (IMO).

In view of these considerations, it is imperative to enact a Magna Carta for Seafarers that promotes the welfare and protect the rights of Filipino seafarers. As a measure that aims to comprehensively protect the rights of Filipino seafarers, the foregoing bill aims to fill the gaps in legislation.

This Magna Carta for Filipino Seafarers seeks to strengthen the protection of rights and advancement of the welfare of the Filipino seafarers, institute mechanisms for the enforcement and protection thereof, provide for compulsory benefits, and implement standards set by the Maritime Labour Convention.

In view of the foregoing, this bill is earnestly sought.

ROMMEL RICO T. ANGARA
Representative
Lone District, Province of Aurora
AN ACT
INSTITUTING THE MAGNA CARTA OF FILIPINO SEAFARERS

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

CHAPTER I – General Provisions

Section 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the "Magna Carta of Filipino Seafarers."

Sec. 2. Declaration of Policies. – It is hereby declared the policy of the State:

a) To recognize the rights, contributions, and unique role of Filipino seafarers as maritime professionals as well as their vulnerabilities, and afford them full protection before, during and after their employment;

b) To maintain and progressively develop a pool of competent and world-class seafarers through a system of education, training, accreditation and licensing;

c) To establish mechanisms for the enhancement of administrative, adjudicative, social as well as welfare services for them and their families;

d) To enact laws that adopt and implement the standards set by international conventions and agreements on working and living conditions, and occupational safety and health, among others, for seafarers particularly the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006; and

e) To recognize shipowners, manning, and recruitment entities as vital partners in promoting the skills and competencies of Filipino seafarers.

Toward these ends, the State shall endeavor to improve the Filipino seafarers’ working conditions, terms of employment, career prospects and provide them opportunities to harness their potentials to the fullest. The State shall further work to uplift the socio-economic well-being of the Filipino seafarers’ families.

the responsibility for operation and management of the ship, and who, on assuming such responsibilities, has agreed to take over all the attendant duties and responsibilities of a shipowner under this Act, regardless of whether any other organization or persons fulfil certain of the duties or responsibilities on behalf of the shipowner.

CHAPTER II – Seafarer’s Rights

Sec. 5. Right to Just Terms and Conditions of Work. – Seafarers shall have the right to:

a) a safe and secure workplace that complies with safety standards;
b) decent working and living conditions on-board ship;
c) medical care, welfare measures and other forms of health and social protection;
and
d) fair terms and conditions of employment including salary commensurate to their rank, hours of work, and other relevant basis for wage computation, minimum number of working hours, rest period consistent with Philippine laws or international maritime conventions, when applicable.

Sec. 6. Right to Self-organization, to Engage in Collective Bargaining and to Participate in Democratic Exercises. – Seafarers shall enjoy their right to self-organization, to collective bargaining and to participate in the deliberation of issues and in the formulation of policies that affect them, including the guarantee of representation in governing boards or appointment in government instrumentalities.

Sec. 7. Right to Educational Advancement and Training at Reasonable and Affordable Costs. – Seafarers shall have access to educational advancement and training at reasonable and affordable costs. Toward this end, relevant government agencies shall:
a) Regulate the operation of all educational and training institutions offering courses related to seafaring;
b) Pursue grant programs such as scholarships, subsidies, loan assistance and other measures that will harness the skills of Filipino seafarers toward greater competitiveness to new demands in the industry; and
c) Promote quality maritime education and training that respond to the needs of the industry and in accordance with minimum international maritime standards of competency.

Sec. 8. Right to Relevant Information. – Shipowners, manning agencies, and other organizations responsible for the recruitment and placement of Filipino seafarers shall be mandated to provide seafarers relevant information. This right shall include the right of seafarers organizations to relevant information affecting the terms and conditions of employment of their members. All ships covered by this Act shall have a copy of the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 and the grievance procedures available on-board.
Sec. 9. Right to Consultation. – Seafarers, shipowners, and legitimate seafarers’ and shipowners’ organizations, as well as other relevant stakeholders, shall be adequately consulted before adopting any maritime policy, executive issuance, rule or regulation or in the enactment of any maritime law that may directly affect them and/or their families and beneficiaries.

Sec. 10. Right Against Discrimination. – Upon employment, seafarers shall have the right against discrimination by sole reason of race, sex, religion and political opinion. Career opportunities shall be promoted and appropriate working and living conditions shall be guaranteed equally among male and female seafarers.

Sec. 11. Right to Free Legal Representation. – Seafarers who are victims of violations of the provisions of this Act and who cannot afford the services of a competent and independent counsel shall have the right to free legal assistance and protection at government’s expense subject to existing rules and regulations.

Sec. 12. Right to Access to Communication. – Seafarers, especially during their free time or off-duty shall have reasonable access to ship-to-shore telephone communications, and email and internet facilities, where available.

CHAPTER III – Seafarer’s Duties

Sec. 13. Duties of Seafarers. – Seafarers shall have the following duties:

1. To comply with and observe the terms and conditions of his/her employment contract;

2. To abide by lawful and reasonable company personnel policies;

3. To be obedient to the lawful commands of the Master or any person who shall lawfully succeed him/her and to comply with the shipowner’s/principal’s policy on safety and operational procedures and instructions given in connection therewith;

4. To be diligent in his/her duties relating to the ship, its stores, equipment and cargo, whether on board, in transit or ashore;

5. To conduct himself/herself at all times in an orderly and respectful manner towards shipmates, passengers, shippers, stevedores, port authorities, and other persons who have official business with the ship; and

6. To take personal responsibility for his health at all times by practicing a healthy lifestyle.

CHAPTER IV – Minimum Requirements for Seafarers

Sec. 14. Minimum Age. – No person below eighteen years old (18), other than a cadet, shall be employed, engaged, or otherwise allowed to work on board Philippine registered ships operating domestically or internationally as well as those on-board foreign registered ships.
Sec. 15. Medical Certificates. – No seafarer shall be employed, engaged, or otherwise allowed to work on board a domestic or ocean-going ship unless certified as medically fit to perform his/her duties.

Seafarer shall hold a valid medical certificate issued by a medical facility duly accredited by the Department of Health in accordance with its existing rules and regulations.

The medical certificate shall certify that the person is expected to be able to meet the minimum requirements for performing the duty specific to his/her post at sea safely and effectively during the period of validity of the certificate.

For the purpose of this Section, a medical certificate issued in accordance with the requirements of STCW shall be accepted.

Sec. 16. Training and Qualifications. – Only seafarers certified by appropriate government agencies shall work, be employed or be engaged on-board a ship.

Sec. 17. Recruitment and Placement. – Only duly licensed manning or placement and recruitment agency shall be allowed to operate and engage in the recruitment and placement of seafarers, in accordance with the rules and regulations as may be issued by the Secretary of Labor and Employment.

No amount or fee shall be charged to the seafarer in the recruitment and placement.

Sec. 18. Contracting or Subcontracting of Services. – Contracting or subcontracting work arrangement involving seafarers on-board domestic ships shall be governed by existing rules and regulations issued by the department of labor and employment.

CHAPTER V – Cadetship

Sec. 19. Applicability. – The following provisions of this Act shall be applicable in the shipboard training of cadets: Sec. 8 (Right to Relevant Information); Sec. 10 (Right Against Discrimination); Sec. 11 (Right to Free Legal Representation); Sec. 12 (Right to Access to Communication); Sec. 15 (Medical Certificate); Chapter VII (Repatriation); Chapter IX (Accommodation, Recreational Facilities, Food and Catering); and Sec. 42 (On-board and Onshore Grievance Machinery).

Sec. 20. Shipboard Training Agreement for Cadets. – There shall be a written agreement between the shipowner on one hand, and the cadet and the maritime institution/school on the other, which shall embody the following terms and conditions:

a) The cadet’s full name, date of birth, age (at least 16 years old) and birthplace;

b) The maritime institution’s/school’s name and address;

c) The shipowner’s name and address, if applicable;

d) The place and date when the cadet’s agreement is entered into;

e) The capacity in which the cadet is to be trained;
f) The amount of the cadet’s allowance or stipend, if applicable;
g) Required number of hours of training and rest which would not be less than the prescribed hours of work and rest in Sec. 21 of this Act; and
h) Other benefits in accordance with law, company policy or agreements.

The foregoing agreement shall be in a working language or in English, executed in three (3) original copies before the commencement of the shipboard training. The shipowner, cadet and the maritime institution/school shall each have a signed original of the agreement and an electronic copy thereof shall be submitted to the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) through the Bureau of Working Conditions (BWC). A signed original shall also be made available on-board the ship.

Maritime Higher Education Institutions (MHEIs) shall demonstrate that over the last three (3) years, an average of at least seventy percent (70%) of students enrolled in their Bachelor of Science in Marine Transportation (BSMT) or BSMarE programs are able to secure cadet berths in connection with their studies. CHED, in coordination with MARINA, shall ensure that only BSMT or BSMarE programs in MHEIs that meet the above requirement are conferred approved or accredited status.

CHAPTER VI – Terms and Condition of Employment

Sec. 21. Standard Employment Agreement for Seafarers. – There shall be an agreement in writing between the shipowner and the seafarer, which shall include the following terms:

a) the seafarer’s full name, date of birth or age, and birthplace;
b) the shipowner’s name and address;
c) the place where and date when the seafarer’s employment agreement is entered into;
d) the capacity in which the seafarer is to be employed;
e) the amount of the seafarer’s salary, and the formula used for calculating the same;
f) hours of work and hours of rest;
g) wages and wage-related benefits, which include the following: overtime pay, holiday pay, premium pay, paid leaves, 13th month pay, if applicable;
h) social security and welfare benefits;
i) stipulation on repatriation or similar undertakings;
j) separation pay and retirement pay, if applicable;
k) reference to the collective bargaining agreement, if applicable; and
l) other benefits in accordance with law, company policy or agreements.

The foregoing employment agreement shall be in a working language or in English, executed in three (3) original copies before the commencement of the employment. The shipowner and the seafarer shall each have a signed original of the agreement. A signed original shall be made available on-board the ship.

For seafarers on-board foreign registered ships, the Standard Employment Contract (SEC) approved by the Department of Labor and Employment shall be observed.

When there is a collective bargaining agreement, a copy thereof must be maintained on-board the ship and readily accessible to the seafarers.

Sec. 22. Wages. – Upon effectivity of this Act, the Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Boards shall set the minimum wage rates of the seafarers on-board ships engaged in domestic shipping, taking into account the peculiarities of the employment arrangement of seafarers and the criteria as determined pursuant to Republic Act No.
6727: Provided, That wages for actual work hours and days shall not be lower than the applicable minimum wage rates in the head office of the shipowner. Wages shall be paid at least once every two weeks or twice a month at intervals not exceeding sixteen (16) days.

Sec. 23. Hours of work and hours of rest. – The normal hours of work of seafarer shall not exceed eight (8) hours a day. If the seafarer is allowed to work beyond eight (8) hours, the maximum hours of work shall not exceed fourteen (14) hours in any twenty-four (24)-hour period and seventy-two (72) hours in any seven-day period.

The minimum hours of rest for every seafarer shall not be less than ten (10) hours.

Hours of rest may be divided into no more than two periods, one of which shall be at least six (6) hours in length, and the interval between consecutive periods of rest shall not exceed fourteen (14) hours.

In exceptional cases, seafarers in watchkeeping duties may be required to work beyond fourteen (14) hours provided that the rest period is not less than seventy (70) hours in any seven-day period. This exception shall not be allowed for more than two (2) consecutive weeks. The intervals between two (2) periods of exceptions shall not be less than twice the duration of the exception.

Sec. 24. Paid Annual Leave. – Whenever applicable, the seafarers shall be paid an annual leave to be calculated on the basis of a minimum of 2.5 calendar days per month of employment.

For ships licensed to engage in domestic shipping, the rules found in Book Three Chapter III, on "Holidays', Service Incentives Leave and Service Charges" of the Labor Code of the Philippines shall continue to apply and shall be considered as substantially complying with international standards unless higher annual leave is already provided under the Collective Bargaining Agreement or by the shipowner as company practice or policy.
CHAPTER VII – Repatriation

Sec. 25. Repatriation. – Seafarers shall be entitled to repatriation. All costs related to the repatriation and/or transport of the personal effects of a seafarer shall be borne by or charged to the shipowner and the manning agency concerned. The expenses of repatriation shall include the transportation charges, pay and allowances from the moment the seafarers leave the ship until they reach the repatriation destination, the accommodation and the food of the seafarer during the journey and transportation of 30 kg of the seafarers’ personal luggage to the repatriation destination. However, in cases where the termination of employment is due solely to the fault of the seafarer, the shipowner or manning agency shall not in any manner be responsible for the cost of the repatriation of the former and/or his/her personal effects.

Sec. 26. Emergency Repatriation for Seafarers On-board Foreign Registered Ships. – The Overseas Workers Welfare Administration (OWWA), in coordination with the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) and in appropriate situations, with international agencies, shall undertake the repatriation of seafarers in cases of war, epidemics, abandonment of ships by shipowners, disasters or calamities, natural or man-made, and other similar events without prejudice to reimbursement by the responsible shipowner or manning/recruitment and placement agency within sixty days of notice. In such case, the POEA shall simultaneously identify and give notice to the shipowner or agency concerned.

DFA shall take lead in the repatriation of the effected seafarers in areas where there are no Philippine Overseas Labor Offices (POLO) present.

Sec. 27. Repatriation for Seafarers On-board Domestic Ships. – The provisions on repatriation shall also apply to seafarers working on domestic ships. Seafarers on-board domestic ships shall be entitled to emergency repatriation in cases of war, epidemics, abandonment of ships by shipowners, disasters or calamities, natural or man-made, and other similar events.

CHAPTER VIII – Manning Requirement

Sec. 28. Manning Levels. – All ships of Philippine registry shall have the required minimum manning levels in accordance with the requirements prescribed by MARINA.

Every ship shall be manned by a crew that is adequate in terms of size and qualifications taking into account the need to operate the vessel safely and efficiently.

Sec. 29. Crew Competence. – Every member of the crew of a ship of Philippine Registry shall possess the appropriate certificate of competency setting forth his competence to serve in the capacity and perform the functions involved at the level of responsibility, for the position held, for the type, tonnage, power, means of propulsion, and trading patterns of the ships concerned.
The certificate of competency shall attest to the fact that the seafarer to whom it is issued meets the requirements for service, age, qualification, and examinations for the position held.

Sec. 30. Registry of Seafarers. – The POEA, for ocean-going ships of foreign registry and MARINA for domestic and ocean-going ships of Philippine registry shall maintain a registry of all seafarers in the Philippines. The registry shall contain the relevant information or data to promote employment opportunities for seafarers whether on board or ashore, or allow for further training and education to support skills development and competencies of seafarers in order to secure or improve employment opportunities as may be provided in the Implementing Rules and Regulations.

CHAPTER IX – Accommodation, Recreational Facilities, Food and Catering

Sec. 31. Application. – The requirements of this Chapter for crew accommodation and recreational facilities covering ships of Philippine Registry shall be applicable to the following:

a) All ocean-going ships and domestic ships constructed on or after the date when the Maritime Labor Convention of 2006 came into force;

b) All second hand ships, whether ocean-going or domestic, acquired or leased, and entered in the Philippine Registry after the entry date into force of the said Convention unless provided exemption by the relevant Philippine government agency; and

c) All ships constructed prior to the entry into force of the Maritime Labor Convention, 2006, as the case may be, which undertake major or substantial structural alterations after the entry into force of the Convention unless provided exemption by the relevant Philippine government agency.

Sec. 32. Accommodation Facilities. – Unless otherwise exempted herein or by appropriate regulations, all ships of Philippine registry shall have safe, decent and adequate accommodations for seafarers taking into account the need to protect the health and safety of seafarers working or living on board.

Sec. 33. Requirements for Sanitation. – All ships of Philippine registry shall have sanitation facilities meeting the minimum standards for health and hygiene and accessible to seafarers on-board. The sanitation facilities shall be located at convenient places, allowing for easy access to work stations. Separate facilities shall be provided for male and female crew.

Sec. 34. Recreational Facilities. – Unless otherwise exempted herein or by appropriate regulations, all ships of Philippine registry shall have recreational facilities, amenities, and services appropriate and accessible for seafarers.
Domestic ships are exempted from this requirement taking into consideration the trading patterns and length of voyages of such ship which allow the crew to go home or to have access and make use of comparable facilities on land.

Sec. 35. Food and Catering. – The shipowner shall ensure protection and promotion of the health of the seafarer. Whenever applicable, shipowners shall ensure that ships carry on-board and serve free food and drinking water of appropriate quality, quantity and nutritional value that adequately cover the requirements of the ship and take into consideration the differing cultural and religious backgrounds. The foods and drinks and the preparation thereof shall be in accordance with the standards of the Sanitation Code of the Philippines and pertinent laws, rules and regulations.

CHAPTER X – Health Protection and Medical Care

Sec. 36. Medical Care On-board Ships and Ashore. – The shipowner shall provide adequate medical services and medicine chest on-board, and access to shore facilities for the protection of the health of the seafarers, as well as the corresponding medical and/or trained personnel who shall provide first-aid and medical care pursuant to the Maritime Occupational Safety and Health Standards and other pertinent laws, rules and regulations.

The shipowner shall ensure that seafarers have access to treatment for sickness or injury, hospitalization and dental treatment.

The seafarer shall have the right to consult a qualified physician or dentist without delay in ports of call, where practicable.

CHAPTER XI – Welfare and Social Security Protection

Sec. 37. Social Welfare Benefits. – Without prejudice to established policy, collective bargaining agreement or other applicable social agreement, all seafarers shall be covered by the Social Security System, Employees’ Compensation and State Insurance Fund, Philhealth, Pag-IBIG Fund, and other applicable laws.

CHAPTER XII – Compliance and Enforcement

Sec. 38. Compliance and Certification. – All ships of Philippine registry shall comply with the provisions of this Act. The shipowner or master shall ensure the compliance of the ship with this Act and its implementing rules and regulations.

The shipowner and master, as acting shipowner’s representative, shall be made principally liable for any violation of the provisions of this Act and its implementing rules and regulations.
For this purpose, a Maritime Labour Certificate or a certificate of compliance, as applicable, shall be issued in accordance with the implementing rules and regulations. DOLE, DFA, and MARINA, in consultation with shipowners and seafarers' organizations, shall formulate the said implementing rules and regulations.

Sec. 39. Inspection and Enforcement. – For purposes of this Act, the Secretary of Labor or his/her duly authorized representative, shall have the sole and exclusive authority to inspect all Philippine ships, domestic or ocean-going to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Act.

The Secretary of Labor and Employment may authorize other government agencies or duly recognized organizations to conduct inspection and issue certification in accordance with the provisions of this Act and its implementing rules and regulations.

Unless directly exercised by the Secretary of Labor and Employment, the duly authorized representative shall have the power to board ships and carry out any examination, test or inquiry which they may consider necessary in order to satisfy themselves that the standards are strictly observed.

The Secretary of Labor and Employment or his/her duly authorized representative shall have the power to order immediate correction of, and impose fine for violations of the provisions of this Act.

If the violation or deficiency constitutes serious breach of the requirement of this Act and its implementing rules and regulations or poses imminent danger to the ships, and/or to the life or limbs of the seafarer, the Secretary of Labor or his/her duly authorized representative may order the detention of the ship immediately until the violation or deficiency is corrected.

Sec. 40. Recognized Organization. – Recognized Organizations may be authorized by the Secretary of Labor to conduct inspection and issue certification in accordance with the provisions of this Act and its implementing rules and regulations.

A recognized organization shall have the necessary knowledge of the requirements of this Act and its implementing rules and regulations, Maritime Labour Certificate, 2006 and other relevant international treaty or convention.

A recognized organization shall also have the necessary and qualified professional, technical and support expertise to carry out the conduct of inspection and issuance of certification.

CHAPTER XIII – Termination of Employment

Sec. 41. Termination of Employment. –

A. The employment of Filipino seafarers on-board Philippine-registered ships operating internationally as well as those on-board foreign-registered ships shall cease when the seafarer completes his period of contractual service aboard the ship, signs-off from the ship and arrives at the point of hire.

It is also terminated effective upon arrival at the point of hire for any of the following reasons:

1. When the seafarer signs-off and is disembarked for medical reasons in the event the seafarer is declared: (a) fit for repatriation; or (b) fit to work but the employer is unable to find employment for the seafarer on-board his former ship or another ship of the employer;

2. When the seafarer signs-off due to ship’s sale, lay-up of ship, discontinuance of voyage or change of ship principal, as provided for in the POEA Standard Employment Contract;

3. When the seafarer in writing, voluntarily resigns and signs-off prior to expiration of contract within a reasonable period as may be prescribed in the IRR of this Act; or

4. When the seafarer is discharged for just causes in accordance with the provisions of the POEA Standard Employment Contract.

B. The termination of employment of a seafarer on-board domestic ships shall be governed by the provisions of the Labor Code of the Philippines, as amended.

Chapter XIV. Settlement of Disputes

Sec. 42. On-board and Onshore Grievance Machinery. – All ships of Philippine registry shall have a fair, effective and expeditious on-board and on-shore grievance machinery at no cost to the seafarer in accordance with the implementing rules and regulations of this Act.

In cases where a seafarer is a member of a legitimate trade union organization, any grievance shall, as a condition precedent to conciliation-mediation, undergo the grievance machinery with the involvement of the union as established in the CBA. Without prejudice to any existing law, any agreements reached by the parties during grievance machinery shall be final and binding.

Sec. 43. Mandatory Conciliation-Mediation and Arbitration. – Seafarers whether engaged, employed or working on-board ships of Philippine registry or other registries, shall avail of the conciliation-mediation services of the DOLE pursuant to Republic Act No.
10396 and its Implementing Rules and Regulations, by filing a request for assistance before the conciliation-mediation desks at the Regional/Field/Provincial Offices of the DOLE or its attached agencies.

In case of failure of conciliation-mediation in cases where seafarers are covered by CBA, the case shall be submitted for Voluntary Arbitration in accordance with Articles 261 and 262 of the Labor Code, as amended. In cases where seafarers are not covered by the CBA, the seafarer shall have the option to submit the case to Compulsory Arbitration or Voluntary Arbitration.

CHAPTER XV – Reintegration for Overseas Filipino Seafarers

Sec. 44. Reintegration. – For overseas Filipino seafarers, returning or unemployed seafarers may avail of the livelihood development, training programs and placements services offered by concerned government agencies, including OWWA and TESDA, TLC, and the CDA and the NMP and CHED.

These agencies shall formulate skills upgrading or retraining curricula to meet the needs of returning or unemployed seafarers. The participation of the maritime industry, in particular, port and shipping industry, and maritime educational institutions shall be likewise solicited by the DOLE in devising the appropriate retraining and local job placement programs for unemployed seafarers.

The National Reintegration Center for OFWs (NRCO) shall attend to the needs of returning seafarers. The Center shall provide a mechanism for their reintegration into the Philippine society, serve as a promotion house for their local employment, and tap their skills and potentials for national development.

CHAPTER XVI – Incentives and Awards Granted to the Maritime Industry

Sec. 45. Incentives and Awards. – There shall be established an incentives and awards system for the maritime industry stakeholders which shall be developed and administered by the concerned government agency in consultation with the Maritime Industry Tripartite Council (MITC).

Under such rules and regulations that may be promulgated, deserving shipowners, seafarers, manning and other organizations or entities shall be incentivized or awarded for their outstanding performance in upholding the rights of seafarers or complying with this Magna Carta.

CHAPTER XVII – Government Agencies

Sec. 46. Role of Government Agencies. – The following government agencies shall perform the following functions to promote the welfare and protect the rights of Filipino seafarers:

a) Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) – The DOLE shall ensure that the standards set forth under this Act, Presidential Decree No. 442, as amended, and other laws, the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 and other international treaties and conventions to which the Philippines is a signatory are faithfully complied with and fairly applied to Filipino seafarers;
To this end, the DOLE shall establish an effective system for the inspection and certification to ensure that the working and living conditions of seafarers are met and continue to be met pursuant to the Maritime Labour Convention 2006.

b) Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) – The DFA, through its home offices or foreign posts, shall take priority action or make representation with the foreign authority concerned to protect the rights of Filipino seafarers and extend immediate assistance, including the repatriation of distressed or beleaguered Filipino seafarers;

c) Department of Health (DOH) – The Department of Health (DOH) shall regulate the activities and operations of all clinics which conduct medical, physical, optical, dental, psychological and other similar examinations, hereinafter referred to as health examinations, on Filipino seafarers;

The Department of Health shall determine and prescribe the nature of the medical examination that shall be required of a seafarer, ensuring that such examination will genuinely determine the seafarer’s state of health, considering the duties that he/she shall be required to perform on board. The DOH shall likewise prescribe the contents of the medical certificate to ensure that such certification will genuinely reflect the seafarer’s state of health.

d) Philippine Overseas Employment Administration (POEA) – The POEA shall look into and improve on the working conditions and terms of employment of the officers and crew of vessels of Philippine registry, and of such officers and crew members who are Filipino citizens and employed by foreign vessels;
