The very first observance of the World Hijab Day (WHID) was on February 1, 2013. Founded by Ms. Nazma Khan in 2013 in the idea being is to foster social awareness about they wear hijab and wipe the stigmas attached to wearing hijab. WHD has become an annual event encouraging Muslim and non-Muslim women to wear the hijab and experience the life of a Hijabis Woman for a day.

There are several misconceptions of women wearing hijab. There are those who think that these women are being forced, oppressed and worst they are being labeled as “Terrorists.” In various countries, like France, Muslim Women were banned from wearing hijab in public places thus violating their rights to practice their religion.

Hijabi women have been facing several challenges across the globe.

There are reports that our Muslim Hijabis experienced cruelty and oppression. For example in the United States after 9/11 attack, there were Muslim women who were victims of ill-treatment and robbery. Discrimination and maltreatment of our Hijabi all around the world continue because people fail to understand the reason for wearing the hijab.

In the Philippines there are some universities who banned Muslim students from wearing Hijab. Some of these students are forced to remove their hijab to comply with the school’s rules and regulations. Some are forced to drop out and transfer to other institutions. These are clear violations of the student’s freedom of religion.
The wearing of Hijab is every Muslim Woman’s right. It is not just a piece of cloth but it is said to be their way of life. It has been explained in the Muslim holy book the Qur-an that it is obligatory upon every Muslim woman to guard their chastity and modesty.

The 1987 Philippine Constitution declares, “No law shall be made respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be allowed. No religious test shall be required for the exercise of civil or political rights.” (Art. III, Sec. 5)

It is our aim to raise awareness and to put a stop to all sorts of discriminations, including discrimination against Muslim Women. We hope to foster deeper respect and understanding among and between Filipinos of varying cultures and faith toward national unity and peace.

Therefore, the immediate passage of this bill is highly sought.
