EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article VIII, Section 3 of the 1987 Constitution articulates that a member of the Judiciary must be a person of proven competence, integrity, probity, and independence. Furthermore, Article II Section 27 of the same provides that the State shall maintain honesty and integrity in the public service and take positive and effective measures against graft and corruption. However, surveys show the growing salience of members of the judiciary who circumvent the aforementioned law, thus, compromising the integrity and reputation of the country’s judicial system. According to a Transparency International’s Bribe Payers Index report, companies’ confidence in the judicial system in the Philippines is low due to allegations of graft and corruption, as well as incompetence within the judiciary.

There is therefore an exigency for the government to swiftly pursue appropriate judicial reforms, and mere out appropriate penalties against erring magistrates. A perception of corruption within the judiciary undermines its ability to enforce and maintain the legitimacy of the rule of law, which subsequently undermines the stability and effectiveness of the government and prevents economic development of the State.

In this light, this measure seeks to establish mechanisms for the detection and prevention of (1) inappropriate judicial conduct, (2) illegal activity, (3) actions that undermine the judicial machinery, and (4) violations of the Code of Ethics. This measure shall create an Office of the Inspector General and shall require the Office to: (1) conduct investigations of alleged misconduct in the Judicial branch; (2) conduct and supervise audits and investigations; and (3) prevent and detect waste, fraud, and abuse. The bill shall also provide for whistle-blower protection. It is hoped that this measure will finally put a halt to judicial abuses that prevent our legal machinery from working in its proper course.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly sought.
