HOUSE BILL NO. ____

Introduced by HON. LUIS RAYMUND “LRAY” F. VILLAFUERTE, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Caceres Broadcasting Corporation is a corporation duly incorporated on May 20, 1991, with office address at Concepcion Pequeno, Naga City. It is an operator of AM and FM broadcast stations in Camarines Sur by virtue of Republic Act 808.

In compliance with the policy of the State and as provided for in Article 11 of our Constitution, specifically Section 24, in re: State Policies— that "the State recognizes the vital role of communications and information in nation building," it now seeks to secure the renewal of its Congressional Franchise.

It can only continue its contribution to nation building after the grant of the renewal of Republic Act 8108; it being well aware of the need to broadcast relevant, and updated, educational, social information and concerns affecting our country by and through the medium of public information brought about by / broadcasting. Moreover, national and local issues especially on matters of development can only be circularized and transmitted to wider range of coverage by digital data, given the age of advancement in technology and communications.

The incorporators earnestly seek the grant of the renewal of this congressional franchise subject of this application in order that it can continue the operation and maintenance of its radio broadcast stations in the Island of Luzon.
