EXPLANATORY NOTE

The humble intent of this bill is to protect children of incarcerated parents from all forms of neglect and development problems, as the State must defend the rights of children and treat humanely all persons deprived of their liberty. It proposes placement and guardianship options for the minor children of the accused, specifying the persons the minor children are allowed to be placed under the care of. The bill also proposes child-friendly visitation programs for solo parents and children and establishment of special visitation rooms for this purpose.

Solo parents, who are for some reason incarcerated, are forced to leave their children behind. This hinders the growth and development of the otherwise innocent child. The bill aims to establish mechanisms in order to help solo parents raise their children regardless of their circumstance.

The approval of this bill is earnestly sought.

LUIS RAYMUND “LRAY” F. VILLAFUERTE, JR.
