HOUSE BILL NO. 1789

Introduced by Honorable EDUARDO R. GULLAS,

EXEMPLARY NOTE

This bill seeks to convert the San Fernando Pinamungahan Road from a Provincial Road to a National Road and to provide funds for its improvement, repair and maintenance.

This existing provincial, San Fernando Pinamungahan Road starts at South Poblacion of San Fernando, continuous and stretches to the town of Pinamungahan. It serves as connecting access road to other adjacent barangay in the mountain and hill lands, Constituents and inhabitants, various sectors of the community be it on business, family and employment are all dependent on the use of this particular access. It served as not only as Trade and business route but likewise a passageways for personal and family convenience, simply because it gave and easy entry and exit from San Fernando and Pinamungahan Town, vice-versa. Farm crops and products from western towns are preferably travelled on this route bound to Cebu City a from to market easy access.

The conversion of San Fernando and Pinamungahan Provincial Road to National Road will certainly hasten access of motorist, vice-versa.

The passage of this Bill is of urgent concern primarily because of the large number of riding public and stakeholders benefiting the same enjoying the use therein.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this Bill is earnestly sought.
