Education is the most basic social service that the government can provide the citizenry. It is an essential requisite for economic growth and the key to nourishing secure, healthy and productive individuals. This bill which seeks to establish a national high school in Barangay Cabuaya, City of Mati, Province of Davao Oriental is a vital step in this direction.

A similar version of this bill which was drafted in response to the petition filed by the citizens of Barangay Cabuaya was previously filed by this representation during the 17th Congress. Support for this bill is earnestly sought.
