REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 1948

Introduced by MAGDALO Party-List Representative
HON. MANUEL DG. CABOCHAN III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In 1973, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against Internationally Protected Persons including Diplomatic Agents was adopted by the UN General Assembly. It came into force on 20 February 1977 and was acceded to by the Philippines on 26 November 1976.

The convention aims to provide protection by punishing those who would commit acts of terrorism against heads of state, heads of government, ministers of foreign affairs, representatives of states, and officials of international organizations. The convention extends this protection to members of their families who accompany them in their official functions abroad. It shall also punish attacks upon the official premises, private accommodations, or means of transportation of a protected person.

Though the Philippines had already acceded to the convention, there is still a need for us to adopt similar measures. We must recognize the need to enact such measure as jeopardizing the safety of these persons may threaten our normal relations with other States.

This proposed measure therefore defines internationally protected persons and criminalizes attacks on them or on their liberty, as well as attacks on their residence, and even their vehicles.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly sought.
