House Bill No. 1978

Introduced by Representative Gabriel H. Bordado, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The 1987 Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines audaciously spells out in Article II Section 26: "The State shall guarantee equal access to opportunities for public service and prohibit political dynasties as may be defined by law." Unfortunately, the phrase "as may be defined by law," has eventually served as a counterpoint to the perceived audacity.

More than three decades after the ratification of the Constitution, no law has yet been passed to address the deleterious effects of the so-called dynasties in the Philippine political arena. Studies conducted by reputable institutions indicate the prevalence of poverty in areas dominated or ruled by persons related to one another.

There had been attempts from both houses of Congress to verify the noble intent of the charter. Yet nobody seemed to have made the mark. In the meantime, political dynasties continue to flourish, making a mockery of that specific constitutional provision.

The approval of this bill is, therefore, seriously desired.

SEC. 11. Implementing Rules and Regulation. – The COMELEC shall promulgate the rules and regulation for the implementation of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 12. Repealing Clause. – All laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed or modified accordingly.
