HOUSE BILL NO. 2003

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE ALFRED VARGAS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

As provided in the 1987 Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines, the State recognizes the role of every Filipino in nation-building and shall encourage their involvement in public and civic affairs.

Dr. Romulo A. Virola perfectly described the nature of Filipino volunteerism:

“In the Philippines, volunteerism has had a long, rich, diverse, cultural tradition. Under its many cultural names, guises, and dimensions, volunteerism remains embedded in the tradition of sharing, of helping. Notions of Filipino volunteerism employ various indigenous meanings such as bayanihan, damayan, kawanggawa, pahinungod, and bahaginan...Whether understood as tulong, pakikipagkapwa-tao, pagbabahagi, or paghahandog, volunteerism can bring significant benefits to individuals and communities in the Philippines and can help nurture and sustain a rich social texture and a strong sense of mutual trust and cohesion, essential to the stability of Philippine society.”<sup>1</sup>

The spirit of Filipino volunteerism has always been evident especially during disasters and natural calamities. However, the willingness of volunteers to offer their services freely is hindered by the potential for liability actions against them. Sila na nga ang tumutulong, sila pa ang mapapahamak.

To further strengthen volunteerism in the country, this bill seeks to protect volunteers from liability in providing reasonable assistance as long as these volunteers were acting in an emergency; if appropriate or required, the volunteers were properly licensed, certified, or authorized by the appropriate authorities for the activities undertaken in an emergency; and the harm was not caused by willful or criminal misconduct.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this measure is urged.
