House Bill No. ________

INTRODUCED BY HONORABLE LIANDA B. BOLILIA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Under Section 16 of Article III of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, "All persons shall have the right to a speedy disposition of their cases before all judicial, quasi-judicial, or administrative bodies." However, the twin problems of docket congestion and case delay continue to afflict the nation’s trial courts as the volume of cases filed consistently rise. As the population increases, it pushes the judge-to-people ratio down to the lowest level. The quality of justice is, therefore, adversely affected.

The problem of congestion is also evident in the regional trial courts. The Regional Trial Court (RTC) in the Municipality of Rosario, Batangas Province serves six municipalities, namely: Ibaan, Lobo, Padre Garcia, Rosario, San Juan, and Taysan, which have a combined population of more than 400,000. The RTC of the Fourth Judicial Branch of Batangas currently has 1200 criminal cases and 300 civil cases being handled by 13 court employees including one judge. This is a far cry from the ideal or manageable ratio of 300 cases for each branch. On the basis of this ratio and considering the annual rate of population growth, at least five (5) additional branches of the court must be created in the near future for the Fourth Judicial Branch.

Considering the equitable distribution of scarce resources, this bill only seeks to create two (2) additional branches of the Regional Trial Court in the Fourth Judicial Region to be stationed in the Municipalities of Rosario and San Juan, Batangas Province. The additional branches can only achieve so much in the timely resolution of cases but it will surely reduce docket congestion and ultimately speed up case disposition.

This bill was previously approved by the House on October 8, 2018 and received by the Senate the following day.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate enactment and approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
