EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 2559

__________________________
Introduced by Representative Micaela S. Violago

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In support of President Rodrigo Duterte’s renewed appeal to make the Reserved Officers’ Training Corp. (ROTC) program mandatory for senior high school students, this bill seeks to revive the ROTC as a requisite for graduation repealing for the purpose R.A. 9163 otherwise known as the “National Service Training Program (NSTP) Act of 2001”.

The ROTC program gives life to the avowed State policy as expressed in Section 13, Article II of the Constitution that “the State shall inculcate in the youth patriotism and nationalism, and encourage their involvement in public and civil affairs.” Without the ROTC course becoming a mandatory requirement for students in grades 11 and 12, the declared State principle enunciated in Section 4, Article II of the Constitution that “the Government may call upon the people to defend the State and in the fulfillment thereof, all citizens may be required, under conditions provided by law, to render personal military, or civil service, “would be put to naught and rendered meaningless.

Moreover, restoring the mandatory military training for senior high school students in public and private schools nationwide would instill discipline among the youth, develop leadership and establish a standby force for mobilization during national emergencies, calamities and other instances where they could be called upon and mobilized to assist in matters of external and territorial defense, internal security and peace and order since, a mandatory ROTC program will provide the Armed Forces of the Philippines with the support of well-trained reservists and potential commissioned officers.

This bill was consolidated with House Bill No. 8961 in the 17th Congress and subsequently approved by the House of Representatives on Third Reading on May 20, 2019.

Support and approval for this proposed legislation are hereby earnestly sought.

MICAELE S. VIOLAGO
2nd District, Nueva Ecija
