First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 2595

Introduced by: Representative Jose L. Atienza, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The City of Manila has always played a major part in our country’s history, from the time of the rajahs, up to the Second World War. It is a city rich in history and culture, without which the Philippines would not be what it is now.

Aside from a proud and brave people, Manila is replete with historical and cultural sites, such as Intramuros and Luneta Park in the heart of the city. However, during martial law, management and supervision over Intramuros was removed from the City government of Manila and given to the Intramuros Administration (I.A.).

The Municipal Golf Links, now known as the Club Intramuros Golf Course right in front of City Hall, is another example of a city property that had been taken away from the local government of Manila through Presidential Decree (P.D.) 1763 during martial law. Since then, this seven-hectare prime property has been used as an exclusive golf course by a few hundred members, when in fact it should be reverted back to the City. This vast open space could instead be used as a public park that would benefit millions of Filipinos.

This bill seeks to return the administration, control and management of Club Intramuros Golf Course to the City Government of Manila that may be used as an open park and recreational area for Manileños. This would help promote local autonomy – where all local governments can plan their own development and progress, as embodied in our Constitution and Local Government Code. No city would be able to fully develop and achieve progress if its treasures are lost and given away by the national government.
