EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 2862

Introduced by Representatives Ron P. Salo and Juan Fidel F. Nograles

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Electronic cigarettes are a rapidly emerging and diversified product class that typically deliver nicotine via an inhaled aerosol. They have become an increasingly popular choice among smokers, either on the assumption that such products pose less risk to conventional smoking-related diseases. It is marketed as a way to stop or cut down on smoking and provides a similar sensation to inhaling tobacco smoke.

The impact of e-cigarettes on public health, however, remains unclear. Science and public policy have bounced back and forth for over a decade, as different studies produce different, and sometimes contradictory, results. It is surrounded by debate, focusing on the lack of evidence regarding the effects associated with their long-term use, as well as their potential to act as a gateway to smoking among the youth.

As it stands today, there are already many e-cigarette users among our countrymen. Thus, there is a cause for concern because it is still unregulated. E-cigarettes are not regulated in the same manner as tobacco products because they do not contain tobacco—therefore falling outside the ambit of the Tobacco Regulation Act. E-cigarettes are accessible to anyone who wishes to use them, including minors.

In line with the policy of the State to protect and promote the right to health of the people and instill health consciousness among them, this bill seeks to regulate the sale, distribution and manufacture of e-cigarettes and similar devices. This will protect not only the welfare of the users, but most especially the general public.

The proposed measure requires producers to register their e-cigarette products with the Department of Trade and Industry prior to market placement to ensure that such products have sufficiently passed quality and safety requirements and avoid untoward incidents to consumers during use. Health warning is likewise mandated on nicotine containers of these products.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this Bill is earnestly sought.
