EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session
HOUSE BILL NO. 2907

Introduced by Rep. Precious Hipolito Castelo

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This proposal aims to serve as a social assistance measure.

It shall allow retirees under Republic Act No. 1616, also known as the ‘Government Service Insurance Act’ to cope with their social and economic plight.

Apparently, said republic act no longer fully satisfies the true objectives of social security especially so that gratuity benefits are being phased out. In fact, under this law, government retirees have to confront the high cost of living after retirement to the extent that they have to live at the mercy of their relatives if not loan sharks.

When receiving lump sums is not synonymous with pensions, they become vulnerable victims of loan sharks such that this close prospect of receiving any other financial support for their daily needs and medicines when their social security benefits under RA 1616 would have been exhausted, we see how wrong choices may have been made as well as wrong scheme may have set them up.

In their twilight years, should not they be blessed to receive old-age pension benefit equivalent to fifty percent (50%) of their average monthly compensation as defined under RA 8291? The urgency of this bill's passage cannot be underestimated.
