HOUSE BILL NO. 2928

Introduced by Rep. Precious Hipolito Castelo

EXPLANATORY NOTE

First and foremost, the veterans of World War II, Korean War and the Vietnam War have, patriotically and heroically defended our country toward the freedom and independence that most Filipinos enjoy today.

If only as a fitting tribute to the country’s war veterans, the government should be able to provide the veterans’ children an opportunity to also render public service. To this end, this bill prescribes that preference may be given to sons or daughters of war veterans who apply for job or work in government, all things being equal.

With this bill, the Constitutional provision on merit and fitness shall not be unduly compromised in the recruitment or selection process since this underlying principle will still be applied vis-à-vis this proposal.

The immediate passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
