Republic of the Philippines
House of Representatives
Quezon City, Metro Manila

EIGHTEENTH (18th) CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 3032

Introduced by REP. JOSE CHRISTOPHER Y. BELMONTE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In the 17th Congress, several measures were filed to amend Presidential Decree No. 442 or the Labor Code of the Philippines to end contractualization in the country. House Bill No. 6908 substituted at least 26 bills filed in the House of Representatives – House Bills Numbered 55, 76, 170, 341, 556, 563, 709, 712, 895, 916, 1045, 1351, 1563, 1837, 1857, 1910, 2389, 3556, 3769, 3802, 4443, 4444, 5130, 5264, and 5899. This bill was approved on third and final reading by both chambers of Congress.

Despite the approval by both Houses of the Security of Tenure Bill, the President has vetoed the bill and has sent it back to the Congress. This bill acknowledges the need to pass a Security of Tenure Bill and to strengthen provisions provided in the Constitution.

Section 18, Article II of the 1987 Constitution provides for the State’s duty to protect the rights of workers and promote their welfare, in lieu of the recognition that labor is the country’s primary socioeconomic force. Section 3, Article XIII further provides that workers shall be entitled to security of tenure, humane conditions of work, and a living wage. The same section also specifies that:

"The State shall regulate the relations between workers and employers, recognizing the right of labor to its just share in the fruits of production and the right of enterprises to reasonable returns on investments, and to expansion and growth."

The right of Filipino laborers to security of tenure is enshrined in our Constitution. But contractualization or “endo” still persists in various industries in the country. In spirit of competition and profit gains, employers have taken advantage of the gray areas in the laws and continuously circumvented the workers’ right to security of tenure.

This bill aims to correct loopholes in the law and ensure that we put an end to all forms... of contractualization. By ending contractualization, the bill gives way to the abolition of all the abusive and unfair labor practices that comes with it. All employees will be regularized and will be granted benefits of regular employees such as minimum wage, retirement pay, 13th month pay, overtime pay, night shift differential, maternity and paternity leaves, and mandatory payment of SSS, PAG-IBIG, and Philhealth contributions.

This bill will provide more stable jobs and incomes to every Filipino.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.

AN ACT

“The Secretary of Labor and Employment may, by appropriate regulations, restrict or prohibit the contracting out of labor to protect the rights of workers established under this Code. In so prohibiting or restricting, he may make appropriate distinctions between labor-only contracting and job contracting as well as differentiations within these types of contracting and determine who among the parties involved shall be considered the employer for purposes of this Code, to prevent any violation or circumvention of any provision of this Code.
