Introduced by Representatives Rico B. Geron

EXPLANATORY NOTE

It has always been the State policy to promote comprehensive rural development, to protect the rights of the farmers and to ensure food security for every Filipino citizen.

This bill seeks to register every Filipino farmers before the Department of Agriculture (DA). As there are rights established in this measure, the registration and later on the monitoring thereof shall be the basis for the enforcement and protection of such rights.

It is imperative to give due attention to the rights, needs and protection of the Filipino farmers so as to secure food supply in the country. It does not only pertain to big and medium farmers but it shall likewise cover backyard farmers.

Farmers' problem on land tenurality and stability has becoming perennial which resulted to the discouragement, threat and dying farming industry in the country.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought for.

RICO B. GERON
Partylist, AGAP Representative
AN ACT
ESTABLISHING FARMERS’ REGISTRATION AND PRESERVATION OF THEIR RIGHTS

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Farmers’ Registration. – Every Filipino farmer shall be registered and included in the rooster of the Department of Agriculture (DA).

It shall be the role of the DA to facilitate a simplified registration of the farmers nationwide, to keep and maintain, to update and post the farmer’s rooster. It shall be considered as public document available to the public scrutiny.

For purposes of this Act, the terms are hereby defined:

"Farmer" refers to any person engaged in agriculture, raising living organisms for food or raw materials. It shall include backyard farmer.

"Agricultural Land" refers to lands devoted to or suitable for the cultivation of the soil, planting of crops, growing of trees, raising of livestock, poultry, fish or aquaculture production, including the harvesting of such farm products, and other farm activities and practices performed in conjunction with such farming operations by persons whether natural or juridical and not classified by the law as mineral land, forest land, residential land, commercial land, or industrial land.

SEC. 2. Establishment of the Farmer’s Right. – Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, farmers’ right to retain occupancy and unalienate agricultural lands shall be respected at all times. Prior to the declaration of land use conversion as provided in the Republic Act No. 8435 otherwise known as the Agriculture and Fisheries Modernization Act of 1997, no farmers shall suffer forced relocation or be directed to close their farming activities until the farmer or farm owner unilaterally decided the same.
To further protect the right of the farmers to the permanency and stability of farming activities, any person who employed constructive forced relocation or closure shall likewise be covered by this Act.

SEC. 3. Penalties. — Any person who violate this Act shall suffer a penalty of imprisonment of two (2) to six (6) years, or a fine of One Hundred Thousand Pesos (P100,000.00).

SEC. 4. Rules and Regulations. — The Secretary of Agriculture shall, within sixty (60) days, promulgate the necessary rules and regulations to faithfully implement the intent and the provisions of this Act: Provided, That the failure of the Secretary of Agriculture to promulgate the said rules and regulations shall not prevent the implementation of this Act upon its effectivity.

SEC. 5. Repealing Clause. — All laws, rules and regulations which are inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed, amended or modified accordingly.

SEC. 6. Effectivity Clause. — This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in any newspaper of general circulation.

Approved,