Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 3187

Introduced by HON. EDGAR M. CHATTO
First District, Bohol

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The recent postponements in the barangay and sangguniang kabataan elections, while serving its purpose, has unwittingly resulted in the change in the term of office of the elected officials which, under the Local Government Code, is a three-year term. The last postponement has given only a two-year term to sitting barangay and sangguniang kabataan officials.

To correct the situation an amendment of the law is necessary.

In the words of His Excellency, President Rodrigo R. Duterte, the change is necessary “to rectify the truncated terms (of the barangay and sangguniang kabataan officials) ...but also provide them with the ample time to finish their programs and projects.” This is consistent with the President’s commitment to empower the local government.

Being the most basic political unit, the barangays are at the forefront of the delivery of basic services, internal security and economic activities. They serve as the first line of defense, the first responder in disasters, the first go to office in all matters affecting community life.

To give them time enough to plan and execute necessary programs, not to mention all the national programs which necessarily trickle down to them for implementation, would benefit the lowest level in the grassroots. Families and communities in far-flung areas will, ultimately, stand to gain.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of the instant proposed measure is earnestly sought.
