EXPLANATORY NOTE

The barangay stands at the frontline of public services. The national government relies on the barangay for the delivery of basic goods and services to the community. The barangay also plays a significant role in the planning and implementation of national government programs and projects to stimulate growth and development across the board. Adequate support by way of legislation must be provided to the barangay, and barangay officials and employees given their contribution to the nation’s progress.

The Magna Carta for Barangays will recognize barangay officials as regular government employees and will ensure fixed salaries, allowances, and benefits. The Magna Carta also ensures the right of the barangays to basic public services and facilities such as supply of safe and potable water, availability and accessibility of public transportation, employment priority of residents, and establishment of schools, health centers, and barangay halls. Local autonomy of the barangays shall be protected, as well as the equitable share of the barangays in national wealth.

Through this measure, the delivery of public services to the people at the grassroots level are guaranteed. This bill is based on Senate Bill No. 2148 filed by Senator Aquilino "Koko" Pimentel III and Senate Bill No. 2097 filed by Senator Sonny Angara, filed during the 17th Congress.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
