Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 3663

INTRODUCED BY HONORABLE LIANDA B. BOLILIA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine economy is in a sound position today in part because of the steady growth and size of remittances of Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) to the country. In 2017, the personal remittances of OFWs accounted for 10 percent of GDP. The billions of dollars they are sending back home have huge impact on the country's net dollar receipts and macro-fundamentals. It is why they are called "bagong bayani" (new heroes).

But not all of the unsung heroes have stories of success to tell - many of them have faced and are facing misfortunes akin to a Greek tragedy. They have to endure trafficking, illegal recruitment, abusive working and living conditions, contract violations, exploitation, discrimination, and social exclusion. Some have been totally deprived of liberty and are being treated like slaves. Some have met their end at the hands of their employers. Back home, their marriages are irretrievably breaking down, and children are left to fend for themselves. Returning OFWs struggle to reintegrate, facing unemployment prospects.

There are several governmental agencies tasked to address the needs of some 10 million OFWs. But these entities are under different departments and have overlapping and redundant functions. The lack of coordination becomes problematic as multiple agencies have the same jurisdiction.

The creation of the Department of Overseas Filipino Workers is long overdue. It will harmonize, streamline, and reengineer all national policies and agencies to better serve and protect our OFWs. No less than President Rodrigo Duterte himself pushed for the creation of such department in his latest State of the Nation Address.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate enactment and approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
