Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session
HOUSE BILL NO. 3834

Introducted by Representative TYRONE D AGABAS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill which seeks to create the “Rural Employment Assistance Program” for the benefit of qualified head of the family, or single adult member of poor households in the rural areas has already been approved by the House of Representatives on its 3rd and final reading in the 17th Congress. So as to equitably render meaningful the definition of social justice in the rural areas, it is but imperative to refile the said bill to economically empower the poor and the marginalized in the countryside.

Section 1, Article 13 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution provides, “The Congress shall give highest priority to the enactment of measure that protect and enhance the right of all the people to human dignity, reduce social, economic, and political inequities, and remove cultural inequities by equitably diffusing wealth and political power for the common good.”

It includes the commitment to create economic opportunities for the poor through effective legislative measures. As defined under this act, the term “poor” refers to individuals and families whose income falls below the poverty threshold as defined by the government and/or cannot afford in a sustained manner to provide their minimum basic needs of food, health, education, housing and other essential amenities of life, or those who have been identified as poor by the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) through the National Household Targeting System for Poverty Reduction. A “rural area” refers to a barangay with at least fifty percent (50%) land area devoted to agriculture, timberland, forest and/or pasture land as determined by the Comprehensive Land Use Plan of the concerned local government unit. Through the Rural Employment Assistance Program, temporary employment will be given to qualified individuals.

Approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
