EXPLANATORY NOTE

Information is communication. Information is education. Information is empowerment.

It is information that allows our people to learn about anything and everything, to make an opinion or not make an opinion about matters that affect their daily lives, and to inspire them to move or not to move on items that affect their future or the future of generations yet unborn. This is the spirit of democracy.

It is information that makes our people act or not act, help or not help, agree or disagree, support or oppose, and love or hate. This is the essence of democracy.

It is information that builds or breaks the nation, unites or divides our people, and teach and train the young and our youth. This is the substance of democracy.

Needless to say, information is essential, necessary and imperative.

And, while information may be taken or received from various sources, broadcasting is still the highest, widest, and fastest medium from which Filipinos at home or overseas get their information.

In the Philippines, ABS-CBN Corporation is not only the oldest broadcasting network; it is also one of the leading companies if not the leader in the broadcasting industry. To be sure, it is one of the top media conglomerates in the country. Without a doubt, over the years, it has also diversified its interests in support of its primary purpose of disseminate information wherever the Filipino may be in the world.

ABS-CBN is involved in television and radio programming for domestic and international audiences and other related businesses. ABS-CBN also produces a wide variety of entertainment programs in multiple genres, as well as news programs that are aired on free-to-air television. ABS-CBN likewise operates radio stations. Moreover, ABS-CBN provides news and entertainment programming for cable TV and is actually now the country's largest cable TV service provider. Furthermore, ABS-CBN has business interests in merchandising and licensing, mobile and online multimedia services, glossy magazine publishing, video and audio post production, overseas telecommunication services, money remittance, cargo forwarding, TV shopping services, theme park development and management, property management, and food and restaurant services.

In acknowledgement of the former and present contributions of ABS-CBN and its thousands of personnel in nation-building, the immediate renewal of its original franchise, which expires on March 30, 2020, is seriously and sincerely recommended, to ensure the continued and uninterrupted, and improved and expanded, delivery of its services to the Filipino people.

This bill aims to renew the right to operate TV and radio broadcasting stations in the Philippines through microwave, satellite or whatever means, including the use of new technologies in television and radio systems, of ABS-CBN Corporation.

In view of the following, the immediate approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
