EXEMPLARY NOTE

The 1987 Constitution states that:

Article II, Section 15: The State shall protect and promote the right to health of the people and instill health consciousness among them.

Furthermore, it adds in Article XIII, Section 11 that: "The State shall adopt an integrated and comprehensive approach to health development which shall endeavor to make essential goods, health and other social services available to all the people at affordable cost. There shall be priority for the needs of the underprivileged sick, elderly, disabled, women, and children."

The recently passed Universal Healthcare Law recognizes the importance of the primary healthcare of promoting the health and wellness of the Filipino people, as stated in Chapter II, Section of the said law.¹ Primary health care includes preventive care, to which medical check ups fall under. According to the report of the Department of Health, the leading causes of death are heart diseases, diseases of the vascular system, pneumonias, malignant neoplasms/cancers, all forms of tuberculosis, accidents, COPD and allied conditions, diabetes mellitus, nephritis/nephritic syndrome and other diseases of respiratory system, which are diseases easily detected through physical examination and diagnostic tests. This bill aims to secure that each Filipino shall be given the chance to have a free annual medical check up to promote their right to health and health literacy.

Considering the foregoing reasons, the passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
