Eighteenth Congress
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 4167

Introduced by Representatives
ESTRELLITA B. SUANSING and HORACIO P. SUANSING, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to further amend Commonwealth Act No. 146 or the Public Service Act, clarifying the definition of public utilities in order to open up certain industries to more competition and providing a mechanism for rate fixing that allows a reasonable rate of return to attract investments into public utilities.

The Public Service Act, an 80-year old law governing public services in the Philippines, needs to be further amended in order to bring its provisions to reflect the current era in order to enable its purpose of truly serving the public.

The proposed bill now provides for a clear definition of ‘public utility’, which is often interchanged with ‘public service’, limiting it to 3 sectors: (a) distribution of electricity system, (b) transmission of electricity system, and (c) water pipeline distribution system and sewerage pipeline system. The new definition would pave the way for more competition in other industries not listed as public utilities.

Other salient features of the bill include the retention of the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), in consultation with the Philippine Competition Commission (PCC), as the recommendatory authority to Congress in the classification of a person, business or service as a public utility; recognizes the administrative agencies to which the powers and duties of the Public Service Commission were transferred in accordance with their respective charters and related statutes; provides an appropriate mechanism for fixing rates based on reasonable rate of return; and strengthens the enforcement remedies of administrative agencies.

The bill envisions the entry of more players competing to provide the general public with more choices, improved quality of basic services, and lower prices, resulting in a more competitive economy towards a better quality of life for all.

This bill has been previously approved on third and final reading during the 17th Congress. In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
