EXPLANATORY NOTE

Just recently, the nation celebrated the National Heroes Day. The Philippines celebrates this day in order to celebrate Filipino heroes who have sacrificed themselves in order to fight for our freedom and give glory to our country. But outside the history books, there are also heroes who from day to day, despite the numerous challenges that come their way, despite being away from their families and homes, continue to sacrifice in order to provide for their loved ones and at the same time contributing to the advancement of the economy of the nation. "Modern-day heroes" – this is what President Rodrigo Duterte particularly called the OFWs.

OFWs are faced with numerous problems that make working outside the country difficult. Throughout the years, OFWs have suffered different kinds of struggles which include, among others, different forms of abuse from employers, illegal termination of work contract, illegal recruitment, delayed or unpaid salaries and various forms of harassment. Although there are agencies that are mandated to address these kinds of problems, the structure of these agencies is complicated and at times, the jurisdiction of the agencies overlap making it confusing for the OFWs and/or their next of kin to seek for help.
This Bill is intended to provide for a Department of Overseas Filipino Workers which will address the needs and issues of OFWs all under one department. Through the passage of this Bill, said department will be able to ensure the welfare, protection of OFWS and their access to government services. The Department of Overseas Filipino Workers is expected to merge and integrate the services currently being provided by Office of the Legal Assistant for Migrant Worker’s Affair, the International Labor Affairs Bureau under DOLE, all Philippine Overseas Labor Offices under DOLE, the National Reintegration Center for OFWs under DOLE, the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration; and Overseas Workers Welfare Administration.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this Bill is earnestly sought.
