Republic of the Philippines

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 4245

Introduced by Hon. Francis Gerald Aguinaldo Abaya

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Those who have less in life must have more in law. Social justice is held to be of such significance by the framers of our constitution that an entire Article was devoted to its protection. In particular, Article XIII, Section 9 provides that the State shall undertake a continuing program of urban land reform and housing which will make available decent housing to underprivileged citizens at affordable cost. Section 10 of the same Article further provides that urban and rural poor dwellers shall not be evicted, nor their dwellings demolished, except in accordance with law and in a just and humane manner.

In line with this constitutional mandate, Republic Act No. 7279 or the Urban Development and Housing act was enacted. However, despite the lapse of more than 20 years, it hardly appears that the social justice sought to be attained was achieved.

This bill seeks to strengthen our country’s housing program by adopting On-Site, In-City, or Near-City Resettlement. Such will be based on plans submitted by the affected informal settlers in accordance with the principle of public participation, a fundamental aspect of democracy.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
