EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 4344

Introduced by HON. JOY MYRA S. TAMBU宁TING

EXPLANATORY NOTE

It is inherently the role of the state to promote human development as it is the backbone of social and economic development. United Nations’ Inter-Agency Task Force on Sport for Development and Peace recognizes sports as an important tool to develop the highest human potential in mind and body. It is a powerful and cost-effective way to advance the Sustainable Development Goals and the best tool to transcend social, political and cultural differences. It is also a learning experience which allows its participants to develop management, negotiation, communication and conflict management skills.

Article II, Section 17 of the Constitution stresses that “the State shall give priority to education, science and technology, arts, culture, and sports to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress, and promote total human liberation and development”.

Article XIV, Section 19 of the 1987 Constitution asserts that “the State shall promote physical education and encourage programs, league competitions and amateur sports, including training for international competitions, to foster self-discipline, teamwork, and excellence for the development of a health and alert citizenry.” It is important for the State create a National Academy of Sports for High School (NASHS) to develop the athletic skills and talents of high school students. This school shall be a home to deserving students where they will be given adequate training and support necessary for their development as athletes and future international sports champions.

As of September 2, 2019, seven other similar measures have been filed during the 18th Congress. My version is based on the one filed by our good Majority Leader Martin Romualdez and Hon. Yedda Romualdez. I hope the inputs I have added to it will make this institution one to be proud of.

On behalf of the people of Parañaque City’s Second District, and for the common good of the Filipino people, the approval of the said measure is earnestly sought.
