EXPLANATORY NOTE

The objective of this legislative measure is to provide for a harmonized regulatory and taxation framework, as well as highlight the inter-operability of Collective Investment Schemes (CIS) products that are currently offered in the Philippine market.

With the passage of this law, this representation is hoping for a steady growth of the CIS industry in our country, and in turn, boost and promote a stable economic growth. This will also ensure uniformity in the protection of our investing public from uneven regulatory constraints and make way for a more competitive playing field in terms of better CIS products offered to the public.

In view of these premises, the prompt approval of this bill is earnestly sought and recommended.

REP. MOHAMAD KHALID Q. DIMAPORO
1st District, Lanao del Norte
Republic of the Philippines

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

Eighteenth Congress
First Regular Session

4739 House Bill No. ___

Introduced by Rep. Mohamad Khalid Q. Dimaporo

COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES LAW

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

TITLE I – GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. Short Title - This Law shall be known as the "Collective Investment Schemes Law".

SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy – The policy of the state is to:

(a) Promote investor protection by applying high governance standards in the establishment, management and operation of collective investment schemes (CIS) and the registration and sale of CIS securities in order to prevent abuse and protect the interests of the investing public, including but not limited to, the setting of standards for the eligibility of persons who establish, manage or operate collective investment schemes and register and sell CIS securities; the prevention, disclosure and elimination of all conflicts of interest which may prejudice the investing public; and the provision of independent third party supervision over the operations of collective investment schemes;

(b) Promote the growth of pooled investments and the development of the capital market by providing a favorable framework for CIS to facilitate the flow of investment capital from sources within the country and abroad;

(c) Encourage the participation in the collective investment scheme industry of the best qualified fund managers regardless of place of incorporation, and the best qualified investment advisers regardless of nationality;
(d) Broaden participation by Filipinos in ownership of securities and other investment assets allowed in this law so that more are able to share in economic growth;

(e) Provide equal protection to investors in all similar CIS, impose the same requirements and provide the same competitive environment for such schemes and the participants therein; and,

(f) Encourage responsible investing through the dissemination of information on the opportunities and risks involved in investments.

SEC. 3. Purpose – The purpose of this Law is to establish a comprehensive regulatory and tax framework to enable CIS and all the participants therein to play a key role in the development of the capital market in a manner consistent with the policy declared in Section 2 hereof.

SEC. 4. Coverage – This Law shall apply to the establishment, management and operation of all collective investment schemes and the registration and sale of CIS securities in the Philippines.

TITLE II - COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES

Chapter 1 – Nature and Structure of Collective Investment Schemes

SEC. 6. Collective Investment Schemes –

(a) A Collective Investment Scheme is any arrangement whereby funds are solicited from the investing public and pooled together for the purpose of investing, re-investing and/or trading in securities or other investment assets or different classes thereof as allowed under this Law. All CIS shall be covered by and regulated by this law and its implementing rules and regulations. A CIS may either be a juridical CIS, or have a contractual structure such as a unit investment trust fund, a special purpose trust, or similar scheme held by a trust entity or a separate account fund established pursuant to a variable unit linked life insurance policy issued by an insurance company. All CIS shall be governed by and shall comply with the requirements of this Law, the pertinent provisions of the SRC and other applicable laws not inconsistent with this law. For purposes of clarity, a REIT, ETF & other forms of investment arrangements existing and accepted in other international markets, consistent with the IOSCO objectives and principles of Securities Regulation, and allowed by the appropriate regulatory agency may be formed or organized in this law.

(b) Subject to the regulation under this law, none of the following arrangements shall be deemed a CIS:

1. Any arrangement whereby securities are issued to not more than nineteen (19) beneficial owners within any twelve-month period, and there is no current offering or intention to make a public offering of such securities, provided, however, that within ten (10) calendar days from the issuance of said security, the issuer shall notify the appropriate regulatory agency of the said transaction. For purposes of this paragraph, beneficial ownership by a company shall be deemed to be beneficial ownership by one person; except that, if such company owns twenty-five per centum (25%) or more of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer, the beneficial ownership shall be deemed to be that of the holders of such company's outstanding securities;

2. Any insurance company in the conduct of its ordinary business; provided, however, that a separate account fund established by an insurance company shall be deemed a contractual CIS as defined under this Law;

3. Any employees' stock, bonus, pension, retirement, provident or profit sharing plans which were transacted or contracted in the regular conduct of their ordinary business;

4. Any fund which is employed by the trust entity solely as an aid to the administration of existing trust or fiduciary accounts covered by agreements separate from those in connection with the CIS; provided that interests in such fund are not advertised or offered for sale to the general public;

5. Any arrangement whereby an investment house, dealer, or broker, registered as such with the SEC, primarily engaged in the business of underwriting securities issued by other persons, purchases and sells securities for its own account, or effects transactions in securities for the account of others;

6. Any arrangement whereby a company primarily engages in the business of factoring or mortgage financing, by purchasing or otherwise acquiring accounts receivable and similar obligations or making loans in respect of goods or services of a business, or by purchasing or otherwise acquiring mortgages and other liens on or interests in real estate; provided that such arrangement does not include the business of issuing redeemable securities;

7. Any arrangement organized and operated by an entity exclusively for religious, educational, benevolent, fraternal, charitable, or reformatory purposes, where no part of the net earnings from such arrangement inures to the benefit of any shareholder or member of such entity;

8. Any arrangement whereby an issuer is primarily engaged in investing in securities issued by a majority-owned subsidiary or subsidiaries of such issuer, where each such subsidiary is not a CIS; and

9. Any other arrangement that, pursuant to rule or order issued by the appropriate regulatory agency, is determined not to be a CIS, or is excluded from the definition thereof as not necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(c) A CIS may either be open-end or closed-end, defined as follows:

1. "Open-end CIS" means a CIS where securities are offered and are always redeemable by the CIS; and

2. "Closed-end CIS" means a CIS where a fixed number of securities are offered in an initial public offering and thereafter may be traded in an organized market as determined by the SEC, but may not be redeemed by the CIS. A closed-end CIS shall not be allowed to increase its number of securities.

(d) A CIS may be constituted as a single compartment or as a multiple compartment CIS, defined as follows:
1. Single compartment CIS is a single CIS plan comprising of only one compartment or CIS or fund.

2. Multiple compartment CIS or otherwise known as umbrella CIS is a single CIS plan comprising of two or more compartments or sub-CIS or sub-funds.

SEC. 7. Juridical CIS –

(a) No company, partnership, or entity shall act as a juridical CIS unless duly licensed by the SEC, and no company, partnership, or entity shall be licensed as a juridical CIS for purposes of this Law, unless it shall:

1. Be organized in the form of a stock corporation, such as an investment company or a partnership, including limited partnerships and limited liability companies whether incorporated in or outside the Philippines, or such other entity as the SEC shall allow in accordance with IOSCO principles or the implementing rules and regulations of this law;

2. Issue shares of stock consisting of common stock or units of participation, if a corporation, or issue units of interest, or other similar security, in the case of a partnership or other allowed structure or entity;

3. In the case of a corporation, to provide in its articles of incorporation that shareholders shall not be entitled to pre-emptive rights;

4. Have, at the time of registration, an initial subscribed and paid-up capital of at least Fifty Million Pesos (P50,000,000.00) provided, however, that the SEC may prescribe a higher paid-up capital. The SEC may prescribe a lower minimum paid-up capital for any subsequent juridical CIS that is established and managed by the same fund manager; the SEC shall also prescribe the minimum required capital for juridical CIS that are organized as partnerships or other structures that may be allowed by the SEC;

5. Hold the original subscription of securities and maintain unimpaired its initial paid-up capital for a period of twelve (12) months following its registration with the SEC as a juridical CIS, or such other period as the SEC may prescribe; and
6. Maintain at all times, if an open-ended CIS, a reserve in liquid or semi-liquid assets, equal to at least ten per centum (10) % of its total investment assets, or such other percentage and in such form as the SEC may prescribe.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the Corporation Code to the contrary, no juridical CIS that is organized as a stock corporation shall be required to comply with the minimum subscribed and paid-up capital relative to an increase in its authorized capital stock.

(c) The incorporators or partners of a juridical CIS shall, at incorporation or recording, fully pay in cash their respective subscriptions.

(d) The SEC may prescribe such other or additional requirements under subsection (a) of this section respecting the form, share structure, and level of restrictions on capitalization and reserves, as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(e) At least one third (1/3) of the entire membership of the board of directors of a juridical CIS organized as a stock corporation shall be independent directors but in no case less than three (3) or as may be required by the appropriate regulatory agency.

Chapter 2 – Parties Involved in Collective Investment Schemes financial statements as required by IC for Insurance Companies, and in the case of Mutual Funds (MFs), the annual report as required by the SEC;

(k) Propose and secure approval from the respective regulatory agency for the establishment or amendment of the CIS plan in accordance with the provisions of this Law and its implementing rules and regulations; and

(l) Such other duties and responsibilities that the appropriate regulatory agency may prescribe.

SEC. 13. Custodian – Only entities duly authorized to engage in investment management or trust business by the BSP or authorized by their home regulator may be licensed by the BSP to act as custodian of investment assets of a CIS. Unless otherwise authorized by the appropriate regulatory authority taking into account the interest of the investing public, all CIS must appoint an independent third party custodian which shall have custody of the investment assets of the CIS. The following, in addition to those prescribed under existing laws and regulations, shall be the duties and responsibilities of a custodian:

(a) Hold the investment assets of a CIS in accordance with its agreement with the trustee or the juridical CIS; and

(b) Such other duties and responsibilities that the BSP may prescribe, which shall include:

1. Earmarking, segregation and hypothecation of the investment assets of the CIS; and

2. Provisions for periodic or other inspections by employees and agents of the BSP.

SEC. 14. Appointment of Custodian – The agreement between the custodian and the juridical CIS or the trustee or the insurance company of a contractual CIS shall contain, among others, provisions pertaining to:
1. Extent of services to be rendered by the custodian;
2. Fees, remuneration and other expenses of the custodian;
3. Any restrictions or prohibitions regarding the performance by the custodian of its functions; and
4. Reporting requirements of the custodian.

SEC.15. CIS Distributor – (a) No entity shall be licensed by the appropriate regulatory agency as a distributor of CIS securities, unless:
1. It is organized as a stock corporation;
2. It has a minimum paid-up capital of at least Ten Million Pesos (P10,000,000.00), or such higher capitalization to be prescribed by the appropriate regulatory agency taking into consideration (i) the risk-based principles on capital adequacy based on internationally accepted standards, and (ii) the number and/or total net asset value of all CIS distributed; and
3. It has complied with such other requirements as may be prescribed by the appropriate regulatory agency.
(b) For purposes of this Law, the following juridical persons may be licensed as a distributor of all types of CIS by the appropriate regulatory agency, provided that the requirements under this section and the implementing rules and regulations are complied with:
1. Any fund manager;
2. Any investment house;
3. Any bank, financial institution or trust entity under the supervision of the BSP;
4. Any insurance broker or their agents under the supervision of the IC;
5. Securities brokerage firms or their agents and sales persons duly licensed by the SEC; and
6. Other persons as may be hereinafter allowed by the appropriate regulatory agency.
(c) A juridical CIS is not permitted to act as a distributor of securities of which it is the issuer, unless it complies with such rules and orders as the appropriate regulatory agency may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.
(d) The CIS distributor shall be principally responsible for marketing, distributing, selling CIS securities and safekeeping of identification documents as well as the minimum information required by existing Anti-Money Laundering laws, rules and regulations. It shall perform such other duties and responsibilities as the implementing rules and regulations may prescribe.

SEC.16. Marketing and Distribution Agreement – (a) The agreement between the CIS distributor and the juridical CIS or the trustee or insurance company of a contractual CIS shall contain, among others, provisions pertaining to:

1. Extent of services to be rendered by the CIS distributor;
2. Fees, remuneration and other expenses of the CIS distributor;
3. Any restrictions or prohibitions regarding the performance of the functions by the CIS distributor;
4. Undertaking to employ or appoint only CIS solicitors duly licensed by the appropriate regulatory agency; and
5. Reporting requirements.

(b) In all cases where the trustee or insurance company functions as a CIS distributor, the foregoing provisions which should otherwise be contained in the marketing and distribution agreement with the CIS shall be contained in the CIS plan.

SEC.17. CIS Solicitor – No person shall be allowed to solicit, sell or offer to sell CIS securities unless duly licensed by the appropriate regulatory agency after compliance with such requirements and standards for eligibility as may be prescribed in this law and its implementing rules and regulations and the SRC and its implementing rules and regulations.

SEC.18. Accountants and Auditors.- (a) The financial statements of every juridical CIS, fund manager and contractual CIS shall be audited and certified by an independent auditor duly accredited by the appropriate regulatory agency.

(b) The following, in addition to those prescribed under existing laws and regulations, shall be the duties and responsibilities of the independent auditor:
1. Report to the BOD or the trustee of the CIS any irregularity or undesirable practice in the operation of the CIS which has come to its knowledge. Any material finding shall be reported by the independent auditor to the appropriate regulatory agency;

2. Report to the appropriate regulatory agency non-compliance by the fund manager and trustee with its contractual and regulatory requirements; and

3. Report to the appropriate regulatory agency whether the internal control and audit structures in the operation of the CIS are at an acceptable level.

SEC.19. Common Duties and Responsibilities of Parties – In addition to their specific duties and responsibilities, each of the juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee, CIS distributor, CIS solicitor, and the CIS custodian shall have the following common duties and responsibilities:

   (a) Carry on and manage its business and the CIS in a proper, diligent and efficient manner;

   (b) Observe honesty, due care and diligence, utmost good faith and high standards of integrity;

   (c) Act in the best interests of the CIS investors;

   (d) Establish systems, procedures and processes to be observed by its officers and employees to ensure compliance with this Law and its implementing rules and regulations and to protect the interests of the CIS investors;

   (e) Take responsibility for all actions and omissions of any third party to whom it delegates any of its duties and responsibilities, except for any resulting damage or liability arising from force majeure or other similar occurrence beyond the control of such third party;

   (f) Ensure that any person appointed or employed by it is of good repute, has relevant expertise and experience to act in the capacity so appointed or employed;

   (g) Refrain from using its position to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for itself or for any other person or to cause detriment to the interests of CIS investors;
(h) Avoid and eliminate conflicts of interest in the performance of their functions, which may be identified by the appropriate regulatory agency as prejudicial to the interests of the investing public;

(i) Disclose all conflicts of interest in the performance of their functions; and

(j) Comply with orders, rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the appropriate regulatory agency.

Any contractual provision which protects or purports to protect the fund manager, juridical CIS, trustee, CIS distributor, CIS solicitor, or CIS custodian against any liability for willful misfeasance, malfeasance, fraud, bad faith, or gross negligence in the performance of their duties shall be void.

SEC.20. Revocation, Refusal or Suspension of License of the Fund Manager, Juridical CIS, Trustee, Insurance Company, Custodian, CIS Distributor and CIS Solicitor. - The licensing or authorization of a fund manager, juridical CIS, trustee, insurance company, custodian, CIS distributor or CIS solicitor to engage in CIS business under this Law may be refused, or any license granted thereunder may be revoked, suspended, or limitations placed thereon by the appropriate regulatory agency if, after due notice and hearing, the appropriate regulatory agency which granted the license determines that the applicant or licensee:

(a) Has willfully violated any provision of this Law, any rule, regulation or order made hereunder, or any other law administered by the appropriate regulatory agency, or has failed to supervise, with a view to preventing such violation, another person who commits such violation;

(b) Has willfully made or caused to be made a materially false or misleading statement in any application for license or report filed with the appropriate regulatory agency, or has willfully omitted to state any material fact that is required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statement therein not misleading;

(c) Has failed to satisfy the qualifications or requirements for licensing prescribed under this Law and its implementing rules and regulations;

(d) Is enjoined or restrained by a competent body from engaging in securities, commodities, banking, real estate, insurance or similar activities;

(e) is subject to an order of a competent body refusing, revoking or suspending any license or other permit under this Law, the implementing rules and regulations, any other law or regulation administered by the appropriate regulatory agency or any other governmental authority;

(f) has been found by a competent body to have violated any provisions of securities, commodities, banking, real estate or insurance laws, or has aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced or procured such violation; or

(g) is insolvent as may be determined by the appropriate regulatory agency.

For purposes of this subsection, the term "competent body" shall include a foreign court of competent jurisdiction and a foreign financial regulator.

SEC.21. Fit and Proper Rule. To maintain the quality of management of the CIS and afford better protection to CIS investors, the appropriate regulatory agency shall prescribe or pass upon and review the qualifications and disqualifications of individuals elected or appointed as directors or officers, partners or other equivalent personnel, of fund managers, trustees, insurance companies, juridical CIS or CIS distributors and disqualify those found unfit. The appropriate regulatory agency may disqualify, suspend or remove any director, partner, officer or other person performing similar functions who commits or omits an act which renders him unfit for the position.

In determining whether an individual is fit and proper to hold the position of a director, partner, officer or other similar position of the fund manager, trustee, insurance company, juridical CIS or CIS distributor, regard shall be given to his integrity, experience, education, training, and competence: Provided, however, that the following persons, and those determined by the appropriate regulatory agency to be unfit, shall in no case be allowed to serve or act in the capacity of officer, director, partner, consultant, or similar position of any fund manager, trustee, insurance company, juridical CIS or CIS distributor:

(a) any person convicted of any crime involving any security or financial product;

(b) any person convicted of an offense involving fraud or embezzlement, thief, estafa or other fraudulent, dishonest acts or transactions;
(c) any person who, by reason of any misconduct, is enjoined by order, judgment, or decree by any court, quasi-judicial body or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction from acting as a director, officer, employee, consultant, or agent occupying any fiduciary position;
(d) any person found by the appropriate regulatory agency to have violated, or aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, or procured the violation of this Law, the General Banking Law, The Anti-Money Laundering Act (AMLA) and the rules thereto, the Insurance Code, the SRC, or any related laws and any rules, regulations or orders thereunder;
(e) any person who is insolvent, or incapacitated to contract;
(f) any person found guilty by a foreign court, regulatory authority or government agency of the acts or violations similar to any of the acts or misconduct enumerated in the foregoing paragraphs;
(g) any person convicted by final judgment of an offense punishable by imprisonment for a period exceeding six (6) years; and
(h) any person convicted by final judgment of violation of the Corporation Code committed within five (5) years prior to the date of his election or appointment.

Chapter 3 - Provisions applicable to Contractual CIS

SEC. 22. Establishment of a Contractual CIS.
(a) Any fund manager may establish, administer and manage one or more contractual CIS. Such fund manager shall enter into a fund management contract with a trustee or insurance company. In case the functions of the fund manager, on the one hand, and the trustee or insurance company, on the other hand, are performed by the same or affiliated entities, there must be an independent oversight body which shall be created pursuant to and shall perform the oversight duties and responsibilities enumerated in section 48(b)(2) hereof.
(b) In a contractual CIS, the trust agreement shall be between the trustee and the CIS investors, and the insurance contract shall be between the insurance company and policy holders. The trust agreement or the insurance contract, as the case may be, shall define the rights and obligations of the parties.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the investment assets of each contractual CIS shall be deemed separate and independent of the investment assets of the fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company, and shall not be available to the creditors of such fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company in the event of attachment, garnishment, execution, bankruptcy, insolvency or rehabilitation or any form of action or claim against the fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company.

SEC.23. Register of CIS Investors – An up-to-date register of all CIS investors shall be kept and maintained by or under the control of a registrar, which could be the fund manager, trustee, distributor or insurance company, which may be kept and maintained either in written form or by other means which are capable of being reproduced in written form, including, but not limited to, computer records, microfilm, microfiche or electronic recording, as the registrar shall from time to time determine. There shall be entered into the registry such relevant information as may be prescribed by the fund manager or the trustee. Information about CIS investors shall be considered confidential in nature and may not be inquired or looked into except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction or in the course of examination by the appropriate regulatory agency or for purposes of complying with existing Anti-Money Laundering ACT (AMLA) such as, but not limited to, the reporting of covered transactions or suspicious transactions to the Anti-Money Laundering Council (AMLC) AND the power of the AMLC to examine or inquire into the details of the CIS account including the personal information of the CIS investors; provided, that the processing of personal information shall only be to the minimum extent necessary for the achievement of the above purposes, and in a manner mindful of the data privacy rights of cis investors.

SEC.24. The Contractual CIS Plan. In addition to the matters specified in Section 30, a Contractual CIS Plan shall contain the following matters:
(a) In cases where the trustee or its affiliate, or insurance company or its affiliate, performs the functions of the fund manager, a description of the independent oversight body, as prescribed under Section 48 (b)(2) of this Law.
(b) Initial unit value and the basis thereof;
(c) Basis upon which the CIS may be terminated. The CIS plan shall state the rights of participants in case of termination of the CIS; and
(d) Such other matters as the appropriate regulatory agency may prescribe.

Chapter 4 – Provisions Applicable to Juridical CIS

SEC. 25. Engagement of Fund Manager. Juridical CIS shall engage a duly registered fund manager to perform the functions prescribed in Section 9 hereof; Provided, That a majority of the directors, partners of other persons performing similar functions of the juridical CIS are not directors, officers or employees of the fund manager; and Provided, Further that no Chairman, Chief Executive Officer (CEO), President, Chief Operating Officer (COO) or equivalent positions may be interlocking but officers with lower rank may be common with prior approval of the appropriate regulatory authority.

SEC.26. The Juridical CIS Plan – (a) In addition to the matters specified in Section 30, a juridical CIS plan shall contain the following matters:
1. Par value of the CIS securities issued by the juridical CIS;
2. The dissolution of the juridical CIS and the rights of CIS security holders in case of dissolution of the juridical CIS;
3. Borrowing of money in accordance with the rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the SEC;
4. Extension of loans to other persons in accordance with the rules and regulations as may be provided by the SEC; and
5. Such other matters as the SEC may prescribe.
(b) The juridical CIS shall file such information and documents to keep reasonably current the information and documents contained in the CIS Plan.
SEC.27. Dividends. (a) Dividends (or their equivalent, in the case of partnerships or other structures) shall be declared and paid in accordance with the requirements of the CIS plan, the Corporation Code and applicable laws and regulations; Provided, that the SEC may prescribe other requirements or restrictions in the declaration and payment of dividends (or their equivalent) by the juridical CIS as necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of the investors.

(b) Dividend payments (or their equivalent) shall be accompanied by a written statement which adequately discloses the source or sources of such payment. The SEC may prescribe the form of such statement as necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of the investors.

TITLE III - TAX PROVISIONS

SEC.28. Tax treatment of the CIS. Without prejudice to the exemptions under existing laws, all CIS shall be subject only to the following national internal revenue taxes:

(a) Tax on Income or Gross Receipts of CIS. - The income or gross receipts from investments or reinvestments of funds received or accrued by any of CIS shall be subject to all applicable taxes imposed under Title II of the National Internal Revenue Code (NIRC) of 1997.

(b) Tax on gains upon Creation, Redemption, Sale, Barter, Exchange or other disposition of CIS Securities. - Any gains realized by the investor from the redemption of any form of CIS securities shall be covered by Section 32(B)(7)(H) of the NIRC of 1997. The sale, barter, exchange or other disposition of listed CIS securities through a local stock exchange, shall be exempt from the stock transaction tax under Section 127(A) of the NIRC of 1997, where forty-five (45%) percent or more in value of the underlying assets are listed and traded in the local stock exchange. If not listed and traded through a local stock exchange, any such gains shall be subject to applicable capital gains tax imposed under Title II of the NIRC of 1997.

The same tax treatment shall apply to gains realized from the transfer of securities and commodity products in exchange for original issuance of CIS securities.
(c) A CIS that complies with the requirements of Republic Act No. 9856, otherwise known as "The Real Estate Investment Trust Act of 2009", shall also be entitled to all the tax and other incentives under this law. In the event where there are two tax incentives available, that which is more favorable to the taxpayer shall apply.

TITLE IV - REGISTRATION OF CIS SECURITIES AND OPERATIONS OF CIS
Chapter 1 - Registration and Suspension of Offer and Sale of CIS Securities

SEC.29. Filing of CIS Plans. — (a) No CIS securities shall be sold or offered for sale within the Philippines unless such securities have been registered through the filing of a CIS plan which has been rendered effective by the appropriate regulatory agency. The CIS Plan shall be filed together with a registration statement, in such form and containing such information and documents as prescribed by this Law, the implementing rules and regulations or the appropriate regulatory agency. The CIS plan shall include any prospectus as required or permitted by the appropriate regulatory agency to be delivered to CIS investors. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale CIS securities unless the corresponding CIS plan has been duly filed with and rendered effective by the appropriate regulatory agency.

(b) The CIS plan shall be signed by the executive officer, principal operating officer, principal financial officer, comptroller, principal accounting officer, corporate secretary, designated managing partner, or persons performing similar functions of the juridical CIS, or the fund manager, trustee or insurance company in the case of a contractual CIS, accompanied by a duly verified resolution of the BOD.

(c) Upon effectivity of the CIS plan, the juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee or insurance company shall state in every sales material that all registration requirements of the CIS securities have been met and that all information are true and correct as represented by the juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee or insurance company or the person making the statement. Any untrue statement of fact or omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statement therein not misleading shall constitute fraud.
(d) The appropriate regulatory agency may refuse the registration of a CIS security if:

1. It contains a false or misleading statement;
2. It omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statement therein not misleading;
3. It does not comply with the requirements of this Law and applicable laws and regulations; or
4. It is in the public interest to refuse the registration of such CIS securities.

(e) If any change occurs in the facts set forth in the CIS plan, the juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee or insurance company shall file an amendment thereto setting forth the change.

SEC. 30. Contents of the CIS Plan. The CIS plan shall contain the following matters:

a) Title of the CIS plan. This shall correspond to the product or brand name by which the CIS is proposed to be known and made available to its investors;

b) Name of the fund manager and/or Trustees;

c) A statement of the CIS' investment objectives and policies including limitations, if any, and risk factors in investing in the CIS;

d) Investment powers of the fund manager with respect to the CIS, including the character and kind of investments which may be purchased by the CIS;

e) Profile of the proposed investors;

f) Its classification, whether an open-end or closed-end fund;

g) Total value of the CIS securities to be issued in case of closed-end CIS; implementing rules and regulations and the appropriate regulatory agency may require, to keep reasonably current the information and documents contained in the CIS plan filed under this Law; and 2. Copies of every periodic or interim report or similar communication transmitted to the CIS investors.

(b) Every CIS shall transmit to its CIS investors, at least annually, reports containing such of the following information and financial statements or their equivalent, as of the latest fiscal year, which reports shall not be misleading in any material respect in the light of the reports required to be filed pursuant to subsection (a):
1. a balance sheet accompanied by a statement of the aggregate value of investments on the date of such balance sheet;
2. a list showing the amounts and values of securities owned on the date of such balance sheet;

3. a statement of income, for the period covered by the report, which shall be itemized at least with respect to each category of income and expense representing more than five per centum of total income or expense;

during the period covered by the report to (i) the fund manager, trustee, CIS distributor and independent auditor; and (ii) each director officer, partner, or other person performing similar functions, as the case may be, as regular or special compensation;
and

6. a statement of the aggregate amounts of purchases and sales of investment assets made during the period covered by the report.

Provided, That the implementing rules and regulations may permit, in lieu of any item required under this subsection which may be inapplicable or inappropriate to any specified type or types of CIS, the inclusion of such item of a comparable character as it may deem applicable or appropriate to such type or types of CIS.

Provided, further, that the reports and financial statements mentioned above, or such other material information as the appropriate regulatory agency may determine, shall also be posted in the website, publication and/or other mode of information dissemination of the appropriate regulatory agency and the CIS.

The appropriate regulatory agency shall prescribe the forms for the reports and financial statements, or such other material information as the appropriate regulatory agency may determine, so that CIS investors may make meaningful comparisons among various CIS, and will not be misled by differences in the method of calculation and presentation.
SEC. 42. Net Asset Value. (a) A CIS shall compute and post its net asset value per share/unit at such frequency as may be prescribed by the implementing rules and regulations.

b) The computation of the net asset value per share or unit shall be made in accordance with the valuation method prescribed by the implementing rules and regulations and shall be applied consistently.

SEC. 43. Accounts and Records. (a) Every CIS, and every fund manager and trustee shall maintain and preserve for such period or periods as may be prescribed by the implementing rules and regulations, such accounts, books, and other documents as constituting the record forming the basis for financial statements required to be filed pursuant to this Law.

(b) All accounts, books and other records required to be maintained and preserved by any person pursuant to subsection (a) shall be subject to examination by the appropriate regulatory agency.

SEC. 44. Management and Trust Fees; Expenses Chargeable to Fund/CIS Investors. The management or trust fees shall cover the CIS' fair and equitable share of the routine administrative expenses of the fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company such as directors' fees, salaries and wages, supplies, credit investigation, collateral appraisal, security, messengerial and janitorial services, information technology expenses, annual report preparation, supervision fees, regulatory reporting expenses, and internal audit fees. (b) Solidary Liability –

1) The fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company shall be jointly and severally liable for actual losses and damages that CIS investors may directly suffer as a result of bad faith, gross negligence and/or willful misconduct by the fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company resulting in the violation of any of the provisions of this Law, its implementing rules and regulations, or their failure to observe and comply with the terms and conditions of the CIS plan.

2) The directors, managing partners, officers or other persons performing similar functions of the Juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company shall also be jointly and severally liable for all losses and damages that CIS investors may suffer as a result of bad faith, gross negligence and/or willful misconduct by the juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company resulting in the violation of any of the provisions of this Law, its implementing rules and regulations, or their failure to observe and comply with the terms and conditions of the CIS plan. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in no case shall such directors, managing partners, officers or other persons performing similar functions, recover their liability from the Juridical CIS, fund manager, trustee and/or insurance company.

(c) If the offender is a corporation, partnership, or other juridical entity, the criminal penalties shall be imposed upon the officer or officers of the corporation or entity responsible for the violation; Provided, That in case of the imposition of the fines, the court may, in its discretion, impose such fines solely upon the officer, director, managing partners, general partner or other persons performing similar functions who is responsible for the violation; Provided, Further, that if such person is an alien, he shall in addition to the penalties prescribed, be deported without further proceedings after service of sentence.

power to adjudicate any and all claims involving CIS amounting to not more than one million pesos (P1,000,000.00) or such higher amount as may be determined by the appropriate regulatory agency, for each CIS Investor. The proceedings before the appropriate regulatory agency shall be summary in nature, and the decision of the appropriate regulatory agency shall be final and immediately executory, unless restrained by the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court.

(b) Claims filed with the appropriate regulatory agency shall not be subject to the payment of filing fees.

(c) The authority to adjudicate granted to the appropriate regulatory agency under this section shall be concurrent with that of the civil courts, but the filing of a complaint with the appropriate regulatory agency shall preclude the civil courts from taking cognizance of a suit involving the same subject matter.
(d) The appropriate regulatory agency, having due regard to the facts and circumstances of each claim, may refer the claim to compulsory arbitration, under such rules and regulations as the appropriate regulatory agency may prescribe.

SEC. 52. Full Disclosure and Transparency. Require all CIS whether contractual or juridical, to disclose all relevant and important information, such as but not limited to the investment plan, attendant risks, insurance coverage (if any) and all costs to be charged by the company on investors subscribing to the fund.
