EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
1st Regular Session

House Bill No. 4743

Introduced by Representatives ERIC GO YAP, JOCELYN PUA TULFO, and ROWENA NIÑA TADURAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In recent times, criminals become more outrageous in committing crimes blatantly, knowing that they could easily get away with it. We have been receiving numerous unfathomable reports of barbaric acts wherein the vulnerable gets victimized and abused. It is high time that we put an end to this and protect our citizens. Those who have committed certain heinous crimes, as defined in this bill, should suffer from the consequences of their unlawful actions.

We should highly prioritize the welfare and safety of the Filipinos who we put into danger with their co-existence with monstrous criminals. While it can be argued that one’s death will never commensurate his/her crimes, the fear of death as punishment serves as deterrence hindering them to commit such crime. Let those who will be rightfully convicted serve as an example to those who plan to be unlawful deviants in this society.

Now, more than ever, is the time to restore the death penalty in the country. We have been too complacent with these criminals at the expense of the safety of the whole nation. Thus, this bill seeks to impose the death penalty for heinous crimes which inherently defy the morals, challenge the justice, and create chaos in the community.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
