EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill provides for the establishment of a Polytechnic State College in the Municipality of Aliaga, Province of Nueva Ecija to be known as the Aliaga Polytechnic State College and appropriating funds therefor.

The State recognizes the importance of education in national growth and development. Under Section 17, Article II of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, it is provided that:

"The State shall give priority to education, science and technology, arts, culture, and sports to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress, and promote total human liberation and development."

Moreover, under Section 1, Article XIV of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, it is further stated that:

"The State shall protect and promote the right of all citizens to quality education at all levels and shall take appropriate steps to make such education accessible to all."

There are two state universities in the Province of Nueva Ecija, namely: the Central Luzon State University (CLSU) located in the Science City of Muñoz, and the Nueva Ecija University of Science and Technology (NEUST) located in Cabanatuan City.

The campuses of both state universities are very far, making it hard for most of the prospective college students coming from the Municipality of Aliaga and its neighboring towns due to either the distant travel or the additional expenses for board and lodging that most families could not afford.

Hence, this bill seeks to fulfill the State's promise to make education accessible to all. The establishment of a polytechnic state college will not only serve the Municipality of Aliaga, but also the neighboring Municipalities of Zaragoza, Licab and Quezon.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
