House Bill No. 4980

Introduced by HON. ROZZANO RUFINO B. BIAZON

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill is geared towards the protection of the elderly as it seeks to define crimes against them and prescribe corresponding penalties.

One of the most vulnerable sectors of our society is the elderly. How often do we hear from the television or radio, or read from the newspapers, reports of elderly persons being duped of their pensions, battered, or even worse, sexually abused? These unfortunate and sickening incidents have been confronting us more regularly nowadays.

It is hard to imagine the values that the perpetrators of these crimes have considering the high regard that Philippine culture and society gives to the elderly. This Filipino value is what makes the Filipino family unique and admired around the world. Their dastardly acts must not go unpunished. It is high time that a law that would address this menace plaguing and endangering the basic foundations of our society must be enacted.

We must provide our elderly the environment to enable them to live the sunset of their lives in safety, comfort and most especially, with dignity and respect.

In view of the foregoing, the early passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
