HOUSE BILL NO. 5339

Introduced by the Honorable ABRAHAM N. TOLENTINO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Emiliano Riego De Dios (September 7, 1864-February 4, 1926) played a vital role in the revolution against the Spanish occupation. He was the capitan municipal of his hometown – Maragondon and he was inducted as member of the Katipunan by Emilio Aguinaldo before the revolution broke out in August 1896.

Emiliano Riego De Dios was elected as the secretary of war of the Revolutionary Government and was the designated head of the Filipino Junta while he was exiled in Hong Kong with Emilio Aguinaldo. After the declaration of Philippine independence on June 12, 1898, he was appointed as the Vice President of the commission which worked for the recognition of the independence of the Philippine by Europe and the United States.

Well-loved by his townmates in Maragondon, Cavite, its municipal government has declared September 7 of every year as “Emiliano Riego De Dios Day”. To further the promotion for love and sacrifice for country, thru the examples made by a revolutionary war hero, this representation proposes that a law be passed declaring a special working holiday in Maragondon, Cavite, every 7th of September, to commemorate the birth anniversary of Emiliano Riego De Dios.

Approval of the bill is earnestly sought.
