Republic of the Philippines

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

Eighteenth Congress
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 5351

Introduced by Honorable Joaquin M. Chipeco, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

There is an urgent need to amend Republic Act No. 10592, or the Good Conduct Time Allowance (GCTA) Law. Whether it was due to corruption or an honest mistake in the interpretation or application of the law, almost 2,000 inmates who apparently were not qualified were prematurely released. This has led one observer to remark that the said fiasco has resulted in the largest “mass jailbreak” in the history of our prison system.

To remedy the situation, the Department of Justice (DoJ) and the Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG) have come up with an amended Implementing Rules and Regulations, to plug the loophole under the law. However, it is axiomatic under the Philippine legal system that IRRs could not amend or revise the statutes that they are supposed to implement. If there is indeed vagueness or ambivalence in any law, the solution is to file remedial or curative legislation. Any student of Administrative Law is taught that IRRs could only initiate “interstitial” legislation, that is, they could only provide rules governing the “interstices” (or, the nooks and crannies) of the law, meaning that they could not go against or beyond the substantive provisions of the statutes.

In view of the foregoing considerations, the early approval of this bill is earnestly requested.

JOAQUIN M. CHIPECO, JR.
Representative
Lone District of Calamba City
