HOUSE BILL NO. 5375

Introduced by
Honorable DAVID C. SUAREZ,
Honorable ANNA MARIE VILLARAZA-SUAREZ and Honorable ALETA C. SUAREZ

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill entitled an “Act providing for a Magna Carta for Barangays” will provide the officials of barangays better pay and benefits and greater local autonomy.

This bill seeks to treat barangay officials as regular government employees, meaning they will receive fixed salaries, allowances, insurance, medical and dental coverage, retirement and other fringe benefits.

The Barangay officials currently does not receive fixed salaries and are only entitled to honoraria and other allowances.

Apart from addressing the salaries of the barangay officials, the bill also outlines the basic priorities in the barangay, namely maintaining a regular supply of clean and potable water; providing public transportation for its constituents; and the establishment of at least one elementary school, health center and barangay hall within its jurisdiction.

To ensure the barangays enjoy local autonomy as envisioned by the Local Government Code of the Philippines, the National Treasury is mandated to automatically remit to the barangays their just share from national taxes at the end of every calendar year.
Thus, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
