AN ACT STRENGTHENING THE WITNESS PROTECTION, SECURITY AND BENEFIT PROGRAM, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE REPUBLIC ACT NO. 6981, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE "WITNESS PROTECTION, SECURITY AND BENEFIT ACT," APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Witnesses are indispensable in the success of prosecuting an administrative, criminal, or legislative case. They are essential in finding the truth of a matter under investigation. Oftentimes, however, agreeing to be a witness comes at a tremendous cost for the witness. Their lives, property, reputation, and safety, as well as those of their family, become the subject of threats, intimidation, harassment or physical violence. Thus, it is incumbent upon the State to step in to ensure their safety and welfare.

In 1991, Congress addressed these concerns by enacting Republic Act No. 6981, otherwise known as the "Witness Protection, Security and Benefit Act." However, this Act, which was created more than twenty years ago, must be amended to further strengthen the protection provided to witnesses under the Program.

This bill aims to provide more benefits to witnesses and their family members, such as increasing the educational benefits given to the children of the witness.
These benefits aim to encourage witnesses to speak out the truth in vital investigations and in the pursuit of justice.

This bill also increases the penalties against witnesses who unjustly fail to cooperate in testifying in investigations, by compelling them to reimburse all expenses spent on his protection. This is to ensure that the State will not waste precious resources on individuals who have already availed of the benefits of the program and yet renge on their duty to aid in the prosecution of a case.

By providing further benefits and strengthening the protections given to witnesses, the rule of law will be protected.

The immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
