HOUSE BILL No. 5969

BY REP. BIENVENIDO “BENNY” M. ABANTE, JR.
AND THE MINORITY BLOC

AN ACT
PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF ETHNICITY, RACE, RELIGION OR BELIEF, SEX OR GENDER OR SEXUAL ORIENTATION, LANGUAGE, DISABILITY, EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT, AND OTHER FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION, PROVIDING PENALTIES THEREFOR, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The 1987 Philippine Constitution guarantees equal protection for everyone. Section 11 provides that the State “values the dignity of every human person and guarantees full respect for human rights,” while Section 14 imposes on the State the duty to value the “role of women in nation-building, and shall ensure the fundamental equality before the law of women and men.”

Article 3, Section 1 of the fundamental law states that, “[n]o person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor shall any person be denied the equal protection of the laws.”
The United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), which the Philippines is a signatory, provides that the “recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world.” The UDHR also provides that everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms without distinction of any kind such as race, color, sex or gender or sexual orientation language, religion political or other opinion, educational attainment, national or social origin, birth or other status.

This bill seeks to enhance the basic rights enshrined in the Constitution and several international declarations, prevent and criminalize various forms of discrimination and penalize such. Any form of discrimination may be categorized as a crime against humanity and human dignity in that several international declarations promote the equal treatment of all people and prevent discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, and other status.

Under this measure, discriminatory acts such as inflicting stigma, denial of education, political, civil and cultural rights, right to work, access to goods and services, and the right to organize, inflicting harm on health and well-being, engaging in profiling, abuses by state and non-state agencies, and detention and confinement are strictly prohibited and will be met with corresponding penalties.

The great Filipino statesman Jose W. Diokno once said:

“Human rights are more than just legal concepts. They are the essence of man. Deny them, and you deny man’s humanity.”

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this bill is hereby earnestly sought.
